PORTSMOUTH WOMAN BEATEN BY RELATIVE

Marietta, O., July 18.—Mrs. Elizabeth K. King, of Portsmouth, Ohio, arrived at the home of her husband's father here yesterday, to get her three children, who had been living with their grandfather for three years.

Their father, Curtis S. King, who has been separated from his wife for threeyears, died on June 21, and Mrs. King came here to take the children to Portsmouth.

When she appeared at the King home and demanded thechildren, the grandfather hit her with a cane and knocked several teeth out and otherwise badly hurt her.

Today Mrs. King had him arrested and brought before the probate court, with the children as defendants.

TAFT DECIDES TO LECTURE WILEY

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 18.—Dr. H. W. Wiley, the pure food expert, will be publicly reprimanded for "irregularities" in his administration of the chemistry bureau. It was learned upon reliable authority that this was to be the solution of the Wiley-Wickersham trouble, determined upon by the president. Wiley is expected to receive the calling down gracefully. Attorney General Wickersham's decision in the matter would thus be approved, and only Secretary of Agriculture Wilson left to bear the brunt of the protest against Wiley.

In the meantime official Washington would not be greatly surprised to hear of Wilson's resignation.

It is well known in Washington that Wilson and Wiley have not been friends for some time. It is acknowledged by the Secretary's friends that Wilson takes the position that Wiley has assumed more authority than he is entitled to. In spite of that fact, Wilson recommends leniency. He is aware that popular sentiment is in favor of Wiley, and for that reason, if for no other, some friends declare that he will not concur with Wickersham that Wiley's resignation should be accepted.

SAND BOAT IS SUNK BY A STEAMER

(By United Press.)

Detroit, Mich., July 18.—The wooden sand carrier Tampa, of Detroit, was rammed and sunk in the Detroit river by the Steamer John W. Gates, and her crew was aroused and rushed to safety just in time. The Tampa was tied up at the Walkerville, Ont., docks and the captain of the steamer found it necessary to ram her or collide with another freighter upbound.

The Gates hit the Tampa with terrific force, stoving an immense hole in her side and carrying the smaller boat out in the river before she could free herself. The Tampa went down in 12 minutes.

FORTUNE COMES TO AN OHIO MAN

(By Associated Press.)

Detroit, Mich., July 18—Real estate in Detroit comprises part of a fortune which came to Wm. Rummel Ward, Youngstown, O., in a manner as strange as any recorded in fiction.

Ward had become a wanderer after his three children and his wife had died in 1907 in Greencastle, Penn. He had finally located in Youngstown where he made a living doing odd jobs. No one in Greencastle knew where he had gone.

Mrs. John Burke, of Greencastle, a paralytic, who had lived next door to Ward for years and to whom he had devoted himself in efforts to make her lot more bearable, died last May 23. She left a fortune said to be valued at more than $1,000,000 to Ward in return for his kindness to her. Part of the fortune is in Detroit real estate. But all efforts to locate Ward were futile until he sent his Masonic lodge dues to the secretary of the Greencastle lodge. The probate judge then notified Ward.

SMALL YACHT CROSSED SEA IN SAFETY

(By Associated Press.)

Providence, R. I., July 18—The 25 foot yawl Sea Bird, which sailed from this port on June 10 has arrived in Gibraltar. The three yachtsmen, Thomas Fleming Day, Fred B. Thurber and Theodore R. Goodwin, cabled from there that they were: "all well after a pleasant trip."

It is thirty-seven days since the departure of the little craft from the Rhode Island Yacht club at Pawtuxet. The party reached the Azores on July 1, this first lap of the journey being 2,[illegible] miles, while the second lap just finished, was about 900 miles. There still remains about [illegible] miles to take the boat into [illegible]

PASTOR LIVED UNDER AN ASSUMED NAME

(By Associated Press.)

Xenia, O., July 18. After death from appendicitis it developed a man who went under the name of the Rev. Myron Bruce, pastor of the Pleasant View church near Jamestown, has been living under an assumed name. He was 22 years of age, and came to Pleasant View in answer to an advertisement for a pastor. It is said that he has been trying to change from a former mode of life, and assumed another name with his new calling.

Kicked On Alimony, In Jail Two Years

(By Associated Press.)

Iola, Kansas, July 18—After spending nearly two years in the county jail, following his refusal to pay his divorced wife alimony, after she had remarried, Peter W. Ball was released last night. He settled the case by paying $191 of which his former wife will get $85 as alimony.

The former Mrs. Ball was allowed six hundred dollars alimony but when she re-married, Ball refused to pay this, saying her present husband was able to support her. The court, however, ordered him to pay the alimony and he refused.

SEN. HAAS INJURED

(By Associated Press.)

Van Wert, O., July 18.—State Senator William J. Haas, of Delphos, was painfully bruised yesterday when a buggy in which he was driving was struck by an automobile, and completely demolished. The autoists did not stop to ascertain the extent of his injuries.

HOUSE WILL NOT AGREE

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 18.—Members today predicted that the bill for pre-election publicity of campaign expenses for senatorial and congressional candidates would not be agreed upon by the House in the form in which it passed the senate last evening. The amendment, covering primary elections, is not favored by the Democratic majority in the lower house.

How The President Puts In These Summer Days

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 18—With most all the comforts about him except the cool breezes from Salem Bay, President Taft is endeavoring to make the hot months he is forced to spend in Washington as near like those he spent in Beverly last summer as possible.

With Secretary Hilles and Major A. W. Butt, the president is keeping bachelor quarters in the White House. Almost every afternoon after the press of executive business the president motors out to the Chevy Chase Club, plays 18 holes of golf and comes back to dinner at the White House much refreshed. After dinner the three go automobiling in the one big White House machine that has not been taken to Beverly. They seek the speedway around Potomac Park, or the cooler depths of Rock Creek Park.

Usually two or three hours are spent in the motor trip, but the president tries to be back in the White House ready for bed shortly after midnight. He is an early riser and has plenty of work to do even in these hot days, so that he keeps himself in the best physical condition possible.

TO CLOSE THURSDAYS

The general half closing day for Portsmouth for the period extending to two weeks into September will hereafter be Thursday afternoon of each week.

As is known, there have been three separate observances, the grocers closing on Thursday afternoon, the dry goods, clothing and shoe merchants on Friday and the banks, wholesale houses and some of the other dealers on Saturday. This, of course, produced considerable confusion, and it was feared it would adversely affect trade, especially that from the outside.

A meeting of merchants generally was therefore held at the Columbia theatre Tuesday morning to consider the situation. There was present a strong representation of leaders of the trade. The discussion was brief. It revealed the fact that the grocers, who have made such a fine success of their closing movement, would find it impossible to change to Friday. With this understanding it was unanimously agreed that the dry goods, clothing and shoe stores, which have this summer been closing on Friday afternoons, would close Thursday afternoons instead, beginning with this week.

A committee of five was appointed by President Horchow to interview the other merchants, who have not as yet joined in the half holiday movement and, if possible, have them do so.

WAR CLOUDS LOOM UP IN MOROCCO

(By Associated Press.)

London, July 18.—Government circles are again uneasy today over the Moroccan situation, owing to the arrest of the French consul at Alcazar by Spanish soldiers. It is felt here that the deep insult cannot be swallowed by France without the keenest of humiliation.

The English press considers that any aggressiv action taken by France might have the gravest consequences, as the alleged affront followed closely on a long conference between King Alfonso and Prince Ratibor, German ambassador to Spain. This is taken as an indication that Germany is backing Spain in the movement.

W. F. Blankemeyer, Chillicothe street tailor, left Monday for Chillicothe, where he will spend a few days with relatives.

Hines Boasted He Elected Lorimer

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 18. The story of the boasts of Edward Hines that he elected Lorimer to the senate, was told by the senate investigating committee today by Donald Frame, a clerk at the Union League cigar stand. He said he had heard Hines tell Herman Heppler that he had elected Lorimer.

Frame could not give the exact words used by Hines, but insisted this was the sense of what he had overheard.

Isaac Baker, lumber buyer for the Hines Lumber company, followed Frame on the stand, and repeated almost verbatim Hines' account of the two long distance conversations regarding Lorimer's election and the celebrated long distance calls between Hines and someone in Chicago, and later of meeting Hines and Funk in Chicago. He said he could see nothing unusual in the fact that he and Hines told the same story in opposition to other testimony.

SAYS STANDARD OIL CO. FINANCED REVOLUTION

(By United Press.)

New York, July 18.—Wall Street professes to se in the visit here of Lord Cowdry, the great English capitalist, whose interests were so dominant in Mexico proof of the claim that Standard Oil interests, to protect their oil business in America, were among the heaviest supporters of the Madero revolution.

Immense oil deposits exist in Mexico, and the Lord Cowdry syndicate was given the exclusive rights of these during the Diaz regime, in spite of the fact that the Standard Oil crowd bid for them.

The charge is now made, but denied, that Standard Oil furnished the money for the revolution in return for the promise the Cowdry concessions in Mexico are to be cancelled.

CHEATED GALLOWS BY TAKING STRYCHNINE

(By United Press.)

Beaver, Pa., July 18.—Charles Hickman, who twice escaped from the Beaver county jail, cheated the gallows this morning. He was found dead in his cell at daybreak, just a few hours before he was doomed to pay the penalty for his crime on the gallows. Strychnine poisoning is supposed to have caused his death. The feature of Hickman's shooting his wife, and his two sensational escapes from jail have made the case one of wide interest.

DID NOT PAY BOARD BILL

On an affidavit filed Tuesday in Mayor's court, a warrant was issued for the arrest of Wood Wiseman, charging him with jumping a board bill at C. Morgan's boarding house, on Gallia street

Big Boost In Taxes

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., July 18.—The state tax commission today placed tentative tax valuations on many small roads in Ohio, in all cases with big increases over the 1910 valuation. Among others were the Marietta, Columbus & Cleveland from $123,000 to $430,000; Georgetown & Portsmouth, from $221,000 to $691,000; Lake Terminals from $206,000 to $2,172,000.

OPEN FIGHT ON CHOLERA

(By Associated Press.)

New York, July 18.—Fear of invasion of this country by the Asiatic cholera has been considerably allayed by the vigorous action taken by United States officials, who have the active co-operation of the officials of Italy. Italy has detailed army surgeons to inspect all ships and passengers just before sailing for this country, and to aid the U. S. officers in every way.

No vessels from Italy are due here for two days.

Ranchman Is Dead, Children Are Held On Murder Charge

(By United Press.)

Grand Junction, Col., July 18.—Four children, two boys and two girls, the oldest 17 and the youngest 14, are held today on the charge of robbing and murdering Carl Wolfkill, who was supposedly accidentally drowned in the river near here last Wednesday.

The coroner's physician declares that the man was dead before he was in the water. The four children, held in separate cells, tell widely conflicting stories. They admit that they were near Wolfkill at the time of his death, and that they searched his body when they found he was drowned.

The inquest showed that the boys and girls had been living in a tent near the Wolfkill ranch, and that on the morning of his death he had received $2,500, which was missing when he was found, and that the girls had visited him at his ranch the day he was killed.

SHOULD BE SPANKED

(By Associated Press.)

Agawam, Mass., July 18—Because he was not given cake when the rest of the family enjoyed that luxury, Henry Samarah, 13 years old, is alleged to have set fire to the home of Mrs. Herbert White a widow with whom he lived. The boy is under arrest and the police say that he made a confession.

Yellowstone Park Scene Of Eruption

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 18—Unaccounted for eruptions of large quantities of water, steam, sand and small rocks to a height of several hundred feet from the Hot Spring in the Norris basin in Yellowstone National Park have been occuring during the summer. Those familiar with the park are unable to explain the phenomenon. They say that as the geysers have shown no diminution in activity the eruptions cannot be due to a diversion of steam and hot water from the regular outlets. They may indicate, however, increasing activity in the subterranean forces to which geysers are due, and if such is the case it is possible another geyser may develop in the Park.

Ohio Man Killed

(By Associated Press.)

El Paso, Tex., July 18.—The body of a man killed here at the battle of Juarez, May 9, has been identified as that of W. R. Griffiths, of Cleveland, O. His wife came here in the hope of finding him, and identified the body by the clothes, and a handkerchief that was found in one of the pockets.

Bert Adams, of the N. & W. railway, left Tuesday morning, for a trip in the northern part of the state. He will be gone for four or five days.

WILEY HANDS DEFENSE TO TAFT

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, D. C., July 18.—Dr. H. W. Wiley's answer to the chages made against him by the personnel committee of the department of agriculture, was today presented to President Taft. Secretary Wilson had no time to read the papers in the case before the cabinet meeting today, and said he could make no recommendation at this time.

Owing to the absence of Attorney General Wickersham it is improbable that the case will be taken up today, although it was discussed informally at the cabinet meeting.

The outline of Wiley's defense has not been made public.

EVERY ONE FOR HIMSELF.

One point about the coming constitutional convention, not commonly known, is that the nomination of candidates as delegates thereto will be strictly non-partisan and so, in theory will be the election.

Every candidate will be nominated by petition and no other way. To qualify as a candidate he must have five percent of the voters of the district in which he proposes to run and his name will go on a general ticket without political designation.

The candidate may or may not at his option sign a public declaration as to what his course will be in regard to the liquor question. If he makes the declaration he will state whether he is for or against prohibition, or high license or yet that he will favor the submission of the whole question on a separate ballot, when the constitution is submitted to the people for approval or rejection.

In so far as the law can go the election of delegates will be altogether outside of party lines. This together with the injection of the liquor issue which is bound to become most acute as the campaign advances will have well nigh the effect of breaking up partisan prejudices entirely. In other words we will have the free and untrammeled choice of the people and then we shall see what we shall see.

One of the things we shall see is whether the people, greatly wrought up over one issue, can keep others of vast importance in mind and on the whole secure the full expression of their will, or be so distracted with the one point that they overlook all else and let the interests take advantage of the situation and get all they want.

SOMETHING IN IT.

They are still debating, or rather admitting across the river that Kentucky has not made the advancement of late years, that in ordinary course should have been hers.

The brave little Independent, of Maysville, takes up the situation and according to our mind, confesses one of the most material causes—the foolish and unpatriotic course of the state press.

If it confessed two, the press and politics, it would have the whole gist of the trouble. There is too much politics on tap and the press is ever knocking the head out and emptying the whole mess at once, instead of letting it flow out of the bunghole.

There may occasionally something worth while arise in the state for the press to foment and forward, but the continuous and everlasting diet of it is politics. And such politics! All good if favored and all bad if opposed. The news of the locality, the wonderful natural resources of the splendid Blue Grass commonwealth, opulent in the native quality of her manhood, are as nothing compared with the matter of filling some petty office.

Some day this will be changed and then Kentucky will come rapidly into her own.

WE KNOW IT.

The Telegraph says Bluefield council is advertising for a considerable amount of street paving, but appears to be over hasty in the matter as no sewering is provided for the thoroughfares.

That is a rather bad case of putting the cart before the horse. Portsmouth has had some experience of that sort and knows. As a matter of economy and health sewering should come before or at least simultaneously with paving. The latter is highly desirable, but the other is a necessity and should be attended to first.

Few towns enter upon paving until they have become of some consequence and thus sewering is already an essential. It is cheapest, of course, when first provided.

Let the Bluefield council heed the suggestion of the Telegraph, lay its sewers in anticipation of the paving, have the latter done by Portsmouth contractors with Portsmouth brick and it will be altogether satisfied and happy.

DOLLAR DIPLOMACY.

An evil of the Taft administration, to which all too scant heed is paid, is its broad adventure upon dollar diplomacy.

We send our ambassadors, minister plenipotentiary and consuls abroad supposably to maintain peaceful relations with foreign powers and protect the rights of individual Americans, wandering abroad from their own roof tree. That is diplomacy of the highest sort and has proved its need and honor in a thousand instances.

Under Taft, however, as interpreted by his secretary of state, Knox, this honorable conception has been changed and diplomacy is now carried on professedly to promote trade. It would be immensely lowering the cast of one of the lines of statesmanship if it were only sunken to common commercial enterprise, but as the Taft profession is interpreted, the standard is still further degraded. In effect, it is nothing more nor less than making this great government a mere collecting agent and underwriter for the profit and security of the vast money monopolies, that already have a strangle hold on this nation. Morgan and Company, Kuhn, Loeb and Company and the Standard Oil crowd negotiate immense bond loans at a big rate of interest to China, Haiti and Nicaragua, for instance, and the United States guarantees the payment thereof. How? By the Taft administration pledging them, that if any of the borrowing nations default in payments it will step in by force of arms and take over the custom house receipts until the obligations are discharged.

It is a pretty thing for "The Malefactors of great wealth," but it is a play that is bound some day to cost this country a tidy sum. It is bad enough for a free government to become commercialized, but when that government so far forgets its own dignity and its own duty as to become a mere collection agency trouble and plenty of it will be its portion.

THE ADEQUATE PROOF.

An insurance company, reading in The Times that one of its policy holders was drowned on Monday evening, sent a draft to the distressed young widow, without waiting for the formal proof of death ordinarily required and she received it on Saturday.

That was to the credit of both The Times and the company, and it was, perhaps, the first time a paper ever received such a compliment and an insurance company ever did such a thing.

It must be a reliable paper that such an institution will risk its money on that way.

When they win they are heroes, when they lose they are lobsters.

When we counted the profit in buying Alaska was the cost of Ballingerism figured in?

BROTHER AND SISTER CLAIMED BY DEATH

Only a few hours separated the call of death in the home of a prominent old Portsmouth family. It first took Mrs. Abagail Lawson, of High street, Monday afternoon at two o'clock and this morning at 10:30 her brother, Mr. Thornton Burke died at his home on Gallia street after a short illness of three weeks.

Mrs. Lawson has been in feeble health for the past three months. She was seventy-nine years of age and was born in Scioto county at Burke's Point.

When a young girl she was married to Mr. William Lawson and to them was born the following children who survive her. Floyd, Clyde and Ernest, and daughters, Mrs. Della Allen who resided with her mother on High street, Mrs. George Watkins of this city and Mrs. Lula Gammon of Ashland, Ky. She also leaves two brothers, Eben and John Burke, of Burke's Point.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lawson were prominent among the older residents of the city. Mr. Lawson at one time owned a great portion of the land on which the Hilltop is now built. He died about ten years ago.

For years Mrs. Lawson has been a prominent member of Manly church and a minister of that denomination will preach the funeral services which will be held Wednesday afternoon from her late home at 2 o'clock.

Her brother, Thornton Burke, who died this morning, was 74 years of age and is survived by his wife, three boys and one daughter.

Mr. Burke, also was born at Burke's Point in Scioto county. He has been a resident of Portsmouth for many years but has not been in business for a number of years. Before retiring he was a drayman.

Mr. Burke had only been seriously ill about a week but had been in feeble health for some time.

The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Samuel Watters.

Leaving the bedside of his brother, Samuel, at Manchester, Ohio, Sunday night, believing him to be on the road to recovery, Mr. George T. Watters, of this city, was greatly shocked this morning when he received a telegram announcing the death of the young man which occurred at four o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Watters and Mr. and Mrs. Will Watters left today for Manchester to attend the funeral, which will take place Wednesday afternoon, at two o'clock, at the Christian church.

For two weeks Mr. George T. Watters, who represents the Wolfe Bros. Shoe Company of Columbus, has been at the bedside of his brother, who was stricken with typhoid fever thirty-three days ago. He left him Sunday much improved in health and entirely out of danger, he thought.

Samuel Watters was only twenty-seven years of age, and resided with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Watters on a farm near Manchester. He was a splendid young man and a prominent member of the Christian church. He was an active member of the Masonic and Odd Fellows lodges, which will have charge of the funeral services.

The young man is survived by his parents, two brothers, George and Will of this city, Ephraim and [illegible] of Manchester, and [illegible] sisters of Manchester.

Henry Shy.

J. J. [illegible], Chillicothe street grocer, received word Tuesday morning of the sudden death of his uncle, Henry Shy, a prosperous but retired farmer, of Dove, O., which occurred at the home of his son George Shy, at Wakefield, Monday evening, while the aged man was visiting. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death.

Mr. Shy was a native of Germany and came to this country when a mere lad, locating in Pike county, where he prospered. He was the father of ten children, five sons and five daughters. One of the sons died several years ago. A son, Fred Shy, is ex-commissioner of Pike county.

Mr. Shy was a lifelong Democrat and always took a hand in the political welfare of Pike county. He was a respected citizen and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. He was a regular attendant of the [illegible] church. He is survived by a widow, who is quite feeble.

The funeral will be held from the home of his son, George Shy, at Wakefield Wednesday afternoon.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of Mrs. Thomas Stephens, nee Beatty, who died at Huntington Sunday from the effects of an operation was held at Wheelersburg, where the body arrived via the N. & W. at 7 a. m. Tuesday, accompanied by relatives.

The remains were taken direct from the train to the cemetery and no service was held though a large number of sorrowing relatives and friends were present.

Cleo May Williams.

In memory of little Cleo May Williams, who departed this life July 17, 1909, aged 3 months and 4 days. She was the sweet little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Williams, of Robinson avenue.

God needed one more angel
Among His shining band,
So He called our darling Cleo
And He gently took her home.

God knew there was more sorrow
Than our little darling could bear,
So He gently said, Come higher,
And meet with loved ones there.

Oh, mother, father, little brother!
Do not weep, she is better off,
Than to stay in this sinful world,
And take the frowns and scoffs.

Now, lay down all your sorrow,
For we must weep no more;
For our darling Cleo, is with Jesus
Safe on the shining shore.

Petition Ready

The petition to incorporate the village of South Portsmouth, Ky., which bears the signature of almost every taxpayer in that place, was Tuesday taken to Greenup by Thomas Nichols. It was turned over to Clerk Davidson of the circuit court and in two weeks it will be taken up by the circuit court.

M'DERMOTT MEN SCRAP

Frank Schellenger and Henry Davis, McDermott young men, were pals, but they got into a dispute and a fight followed.

The clash occurred Sunday in the village near the N. & W. depot, and Monday the pair was arrested for disturbing the peace, and arraigned before 'Squire Albert Russell.

They had their hearing this afternoon, Attorney N. B. Gilliland representing the defendants. A big array of witnesses was heard.

Injuries Are Not Serious

Lake Lewis, of Malonetown, who was injured in a fight with Sherman Porter, was not as seriously injured as at first reported. Lewis was struck in the head with a rock, but was able to come on to Portsmouth and remain awhile. He later returned to his home in Kentucky and afterward sent for Dr. Nichols, of Fullerton, who attended him. The man is out of danger.

Baby Girl Arrived

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Glover of Fullerton have a new girl at their home. Mr. Glover, who is a drayman of that vicinity, has a host of friends who are extending congratulations.

Dr. Jordan Out.

Dr. J. D. Jordan, prominent physician of East Eleventh, who has been quite ill with an attack of appendicitis, for the past few weeks, was out for the first time Tuesday. He is looking fine, and says he feels just like he is, looking. He expects to leave for Glen Springs, Ky., in a few days where he will spend a week.

J. W. Roberts is the name of a man who tanked up on "fire water" Tuesday afternoon and then fell by the wayside. He was found asleep by an officer in the yard of an East Second street citizen and taken to the lockup to sleep off the jag.

Girls Are Indicted

(By Associated Press.)

New York, July 18.—Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad were indicted by the grand jury on three counts today, growing out of the shooting of W. E. D. Stokes on June 6th. They are held for attempted murder on the first; and the second, assault, and the third, assault.

Street Car Jumps Track

An eastbound street car jumped the track at the corner of Offnere and Eleventh streets Tuesday afternoon, delaying traffic for quite a time. The street railway company is putting in new curves at this point and the ties have become so weather beaten that the rails spread, the front trucks running on the paved street.

Baum Pleads His Own Case

Lon Baum, the center of attraction in many civil and criminal actions, pleaded his own case before Squire Byron, Tuesday afternoon and lost the verdict.

D. T. and R. C. Blackburn, Rarden merchants, had sued Baum for $18.50, balance due on the purchase of eggs and butter. Baum disputed the account, bringing all of his oratory into display. He failed, however, to convince the court, who gave the plaintiffs a judgment in the amount sued for. Attorney W. R. Sprague represented the plaintiffs.

Baum says he has been up against the law so much he knows as much as there is in the books.

FINE HORSES HAVE DIED

DELIRIOUS MAN RUNS AMUCK IN STREET

(By Associated Press.)

Toledo, O., July 18.—Suffering with burned feet and legs, which compelled him to use crutches, Stephen Chance, 32, in his delirium this morning jumped from a window in the second story of his home here this morning, leaving the crutches behind. He seemed unhurt from the fall and ran on down the street until he came to a church, which he entered to pray. He was later arrested and taken to jail and his condition necessitated his removal to the infirmary.

Shot To Death

(By Associated Press.)

Anderson, S. C., July 18.—W. B. Beasley was shot and killed by his son-in-law Daniel Hyde, engineer at a cotton mill here today. Hyde broke into the Beasley home, and fired at Mrs. Beasley, who was asleep. The bullet missed her, and Hyde encountered his father-in-law in trying to escape. Mr. and Mrs. Hyde had been estranged for about three years.

Base Ball

At the end of the fifth inning the score at Lancaster Tuesday was 1 to 0 in favor of the Champs. Hartwig and Theisen were pitching. Portsmouth scored one run in the fourth.

Wanted The Law

A Friendship man, accused of robbing the money drawer at the store of John Schaeffer last Saturday, came to town Tuesday for the purpose of "getting the law" on his accusers. The man consulted an attorney, but did not file any charges.

Mr. Schaffer in the meantime is still out $45.

Practice For Great Game

Capt. Ted Cropper, of the police base ball team, which will cross bats with the street car aggregation Friday, led his charges to Millbrook park Tuesday afternoon and put them through a session of practice.

The contest is certain to be hard fought, as both sides will present their strongest front and each are equally confident of victory.

HAVE COMPLETED FINE BUNGALOW

H. H. Winters and T. B. Nichols have completed a fine five room bungalow at Dixon's mill, which they have named Pine Hill. A crowd of twenty will spend Thursday there. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hanes, of Chillicothe, will arrive Wednesday to join the party, who will spend Thursday at the bungalow.

New Rugs for a Nickel.

When the rugs and carpets grow dingy, don't throw them away as long as the pile and nap remain. You can renew the original brightness of color without taking them up—scrub the rug or carpet with hot suds made from Hewitt's Easy Task Soap, just as you would scrub the bare floor, then wipe up the suds with a damp cloth.

Hewitt's Easy Task Soap acts directly on the dirt and grease. Try it next time. It's only a nickel a cake.

SHERIFF CHASED A HORSE THIEF

Sheriff John Eckhart and J. F. Potts, motion picture magnate, had an exciting chase after a horse thief Monday night, one that took them over the greatest part of Scioto county, but which was without result.

Sheriff Eckhart received word from the sheriff of Greenup county, Ky., that an unknown man had stolen a mare and phaeton, and had crossed the river at Greenup and was supposed to have made his way toward Sciotoville. Sheriff Eckhart deputized Mr. Potts, placing a big six shooter in his hand. The two then jumped into Potts' auto and away they went. They scoured the country over, but not a peep did they get at the thief. Mr. Potts, of course, was just as well pleased that they missed connections, for he has a wholesome respect for the shooting ability of the Kentuckians, especially of those kind who do not think it a crime to steal a horse.

GIRL POSED AS A MAN, TRAVELED WITH SHOW

Newark, July 18.—After masquerading for two years as a man and traveling with John Robinson's circus as a driver of a wagon son's circus as driver of a wagon wearing skirts for the first time in that period, arrived here today seeking her parents. Her father S. H. Hawley, was a resident of this place until two years ago, when he left for Virginia.

The young woman disappeared from Newark, following a quarrel with her fiance. Nothing was heard of her and her parents believed her dead. Manager John Robinson made the discovery that one of his wagon drivers was a woman and sent her from Urbana yesterday to this place to see her parents, and join the circus when it appears here next Monday.

Miss Hawley says she will remain with the circus and finish her contract with the management. In the meantime her parents are being sought throughout the South.

HOLDS UP TRAIN, IS SHOT BY BRAKEMAN

(By Associated Press.)

Belleplain, Ill., July 18.—A lone bandit who attempted to rob the occupants of east bound passenger train No. 8, on the North Western, at an early hour this morning, lies in a local hospital with a bullet in his side.

He gave the name of William Morris to the police and said that his home was in Plainfield, N. J. The wound was inflicted by Arthur Morris, a brakeman, who slipped into the car when the man demanded valuable from the passengers. When the brakeman entered he showed fight, but one shot was sufficient to quiet him. He is said to be fatally wounded.

Cook Decides To Quit Game

"Lefty" Cook, a former Champ twirler, who was recently signed by Akron of the O. & P. league, writes that he has again been given his release and has decided to quit the game. He adds that he and a friend of his have gone into the real estate business in Akron and that he finds that business more profitable than ball playing.

New Manager Due Tomorrow

Saw Safe Robbed

(By Associated Press.)

Henderson, Ky., July 18.—Burglars carried a 2,000 pound safe from the store of J. C. McDonald, near here today, while the owner looked on. They then placed the safe under a tree and blew the door open, securing about $200, while McDonald watched the proceedings from an upstairs window. He says that the reason he did not give the alarm was because the gang was too big.

Chris Hansen Was Robbed

Chris Hansen, well known clerk at the Hansen furniture store and member of the River City band was the victim of a sneak thief who entered his room at the McElmurray home, at 18 West Fifth street, some time on Monday forenoon and carried away personal effects in addition to his musical equipment to the total value of fully $50.

The theft was not discovered until the noon hour when Mr. Hansen visited his room. No one was seen about the house or premises during the forenoon and there is considerable mystery about the disappearance of the property.

The police were promptly notified but so far the officers have been unable to secure any trace of the stolen goods.

The list of stolen property includes an oboe musical instrument, music stand and cases, black double breasted coat and other wearing apparel.

UNIONS SEEM TO HAVE HOBSON'S CHOICE ONLY

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, July 18—Whether to use excursions on Lake Michigan on boats not manned by union men or to stay ashore and endure the hot nights is a question vexing the minds of thousands of union men in Chicago, following the report of the amusement committee of the Chicago Federation of Labor yesterday.

It has been the intention of hundreds of local unions to treat their members to moonlight rides along the lake shore during the hot summer nights. In order that only union boats might be used, the committee investigated and found there are but two boats running from Chicago docks, according to the report, which may be termed even "near union." On these two boats there are, it is said, about four or five union seamen. In one instance the cook is a union man, and in another there are two union musicians.

SEA CAPTAIN'S NERVE IS RECALLED BY DEATH

(By Associated Press.)

Montclair, N. J., July 18—Captain Charles Burgess, of Brooklyn, the oldest sea captain on the rolls of the New York Marine Society, is dead at the home of his son here. He was nearly 90 years of age and had followed the sea from the age of 13 years. He was educated in the British navy and received charge of his first American vessel during the civil war, carrying troops and supplies for the United States government.

Prior to the Spanish-American war, when there was strained feeling between the two nations, Captain Burgess was anchored at a pier in Seville, Spain. The American consul advised him not to fly his flag for fear of trouble with the crowds along the water front. The Captain indignantly refused to lower the flag. "I am a peaceful man," he told the consul, "but if any man tries to haul down that flag he will have to fight all the way to the top of the mast."

The flag flew unmolested throughout his stay in Seville.

American Tenements Are Given A Scoring

(By Associated Press.)

Hoboken, N. J., June 18—Dr. Charles Prazard, deputy chief of the bureau of social providence of France, who is here to look over this city's housing methods, finds conditions in New York "amazing." He started off with an examination of East Side tenements, hoping to get some hints for improving housing conditions in France, but his first glimpse led him to think that this city had better send to Paris for instructions.

"I inspected several tenements in Lower Manhattan," he said on his return, "and found the tenants paying $3 a month rent per room. Many of these rooms are so dark that they should be vacated at once as unfit for human beings to live in. They are also veritable death traps.

"Five hundred dollars is the average earnings of unskilled laborers in New York, out of which they have to pay $150 a year for their small rooms. This is about one-third of their total income. In Paris unskilled workmen earn $450 a year on the average, but their rents are only $90 for three or four rooms, that is only a fifth of their earnings."

POLICE CHIEF IS FOR SUNDAY BALL

(By Asciated Press.)

New Haven, Conn., July 18—Sunday baseball by professional teams is a distinctly helpful moral force, according to Chief of Police Cowles of this city. In reply to a demand from church organizations that he suppress the Sunday games at Light House Point in the suburbs, Chief Cowles says:

"Sunday base ball by professionals will continue at Light House Point so long as the game is conducted in an orderly manner, because it draws young men from the streets and lessens the number of arrests for drunkenness and disorder. Many young men are attracted to the shore by the Sunday games who would otherwise loiter on street corners, and from my own personal observation I know it lowers the number of cases in the courts Mondays."

State House Talk

Columbus, Ohio, July 18.—In compliance with an almost universal demand, the legislature enacted a law providing for the selection of delegates to the constitutional convention to be held next year, in a non-partisan way.

Notwithstanding this, it is by no means certain that these delegates will be chosen in that way. There seems to be a barrier to this end, what's more, an apparently insurmountable one.

It develops that the constitution of Ohio seems to stand in the way of the selection of delegates by the non-partisan method. If, as is feared, this proves to be true, a sensation will be caused all over the state.

The constitution, it would seem, requires political parties to nominate candidates for election as delegates to the convention, and this being the case, then the Green law, which provides for the non-partisan election of delegates, being at variance with the organic law of the state, is null and void.

The apparent conflict of the Green law with the constitution was discovered by Secretary of State Charles H. Graves, who by virtue of his office, is chief election supervisor of the state. In reading Section 2 of Article 16 of the constitutio of 1851, which still stands, he came to this language: "The convention shall consist of as many members as the house of representatives, who shall be chosen in the same manner, and shall meet within three months after their election, for the purpose aforesaid."

This section of the constitution provides the authority for holding conventions to revise or amend the state constitution.

The clause "Who shall be chosen in the same manner," in the opinion of Secretary of State Graves, clearly means that the delegates to the constitutional convention shall be chosen in the same manner that representatives are chosen by counties to serve in the general assembly.

As is well known, candidates for representative are nominated by political parties and are elected as partisans. The constitution says that the delegates in question shall be chosen in the same manner as representatives are selected.

Secretary of State Graves Tuesday will ask Attorney General Hogan for a ruling as to whether or not the Green law providing for the selection of delegates in a nonpartisan way, is constitutional. It would seem that the Green law says one thing and the constitution another, and, of course, no one will contend that a statutory act can override the organic law of the state.

Under the Green law, candidates for election as delegates are nominated by petition, and the names all go on a separate and independent ballot, bearing no party emblem or designation. There is nothing to show what the political affiliation of the candidate is.

All over the state different interests and organizations are preparing to carry on a campaign for the election of candidates pledged to support legislation favored by them.

If the Green law is knocked out, they will have to revise their methods and instead, work through the political parties. The aspirants for election as delegates will also have to proceed differently. It will be necessary for them to stand for nomination as candidates of parties.

The opinion of the attorney general will be awaited with widespread interest.

Secretary of State Graves has made another discovery. He finds that in Section 3 of Article 16 of the constitution, it becomes his duty to issue a call for the submission to the people of the question of whether or not a constitutional convention shall be held.

This section provides that at the general election to be held in 1871, and in each twentieth year thereafter, the question of whether or not a convention shall be held to revise, alter or amend the constitution shall be submitted to the electors of the state.

In 1871 and twenty years later, in 1891, this question was submitted to the people as required by the constitution. Under the constitution, the time for submitting the question again comes this year.

Inasmuch as the people of the state last fall voted upon this question and decided to hold a convention, Secretary of State Graves cannot see the necessity for issuing a call for submission of the same question this year, but he wants to do his duty and he has asked the attorney general to advise him what he should do in this connection.

Of course, under the law, whenever two-thirds of the members of the general assembly think it necessary to call a convention, they may have the question submitted to the people for their decision as to whether or not this should be done. This action was taken by the last general assembly. Had it not been taken, the question would have gone to the people of the state anyway this year, under the constitutional requirement.

EW ELECTION LAW BARS USE OF MONEY

Municipalities in the state will witness a revolution in political methods in the primary election September 5. The revolution will be the result of the recently enacted Kimble corrupt practices act. The primaries will be the first election held under that law.

The revolution in methods will be drastic. It will bring practically every movement of every political party and candidate into the daylight of publicity. It will probably prevent a party committee from lining up with any particular candidate by publishing that fact after the primaries. It will prevent unknown party workers from operating in any precinct. If any candidate has been the tool of any interest or corporation it will make that fact known.

Limits Campaign Fund

Furthermore the new law will place a strict limit upon the amount of money any candidate can spend for his nomination. In a city like Columbus where the population exceeds 5000 the amount allowed to be spent is proportionate to the population. As the law reads, it is estimated that a candidate for mayor in Columbus can spend about $2000 but no more. The spending of more would have the effect of disqualifying him for office.

The publicity feature is attained by the provisions of the law which compel the filing within ten days after any election of satements showing the precise amount of money spent by every candidate, party, committee or association, or organization, or two or more persons interested in the election, and showing in addition how every dollar was spent. Primary elections are included.

The law makes the filing of such statements absolutely compulsory. In Portsmouth they will have to be filed with the board of electons.

And the law goes still farther. It compels such statements to include not only the amount of money spent, but the amount "promised" or "received." The candidate thus must specify every dollar he received, or promised and naturally his statment can be checked against the statement of others who aided him. For instance, if a candidate should state that he received $50 from a certain organization, and the organization had failed to make a statement saying that such an amount had been contributed to him, the organization could be detected in its omission and punished severely for "corrupt practices."

Few Paid Workers

The term "organization" as interpreted by the new law, is so broad that it includes practically every combination of persons. Both the Anti-Saloon league and the Liberal league are, by general interpretation included. Furthermore there doesn't seem to be in the new law any provision allowing such organization longer to employ paid workers on election day. In the section of the law which limits the kinds of services that can be paid for, provision is made only for the employment of workers by party committees and candidates and the number of these is limited to three each for the party committees in any one precinct and to one for each candidate. Two days before election the names of all such workers must be announced. No longer can any committee or organization pay out money indiscriminately throughout the wards and precincts for "entertainment" or for the creation of good will. Every penny so given would have to be accounted for and in the list of things for which money can be spent, entertainment and good will are by no means included. Thus if such money were spent, it would convict the contributor of corrupt practices.

Legitimate Expenses

The law enumerates the sort of things that money can be spent for. These things include expenses of halls and speakers, music and fireworks, advertising; also in a general way, the preparation of posters, lithographs and the like. Furthermore the expenses of offices and headquarters, pay of clerks to manage campaign details, expenses of the preparation of lists of voters, expenses of circulating nomination petitions, personal expenses of candidates traveling expenses of committeemen, agents, clerks and speakers, postage, express, telegrams and telephones, and finally, the pay of precinct workers on election day, whose numbers are limited as noted above.

Provides Heavy Penalty

The penalty for "corrupt practice," which means the violation of any provision of the law, is severe. For a candidate it means forfeiture of office, in addition to the fine or imprisonment. The fine is to be from $100 to $500 and the imprisonment not to exceed six months. Or both the fine and the imprisonment can be imposed.

The Kimble law of vote-buying is the result of revelations of vote-buying in Adams county, where hundreds were disfranchised. The law was introduced by the representative in the general assembly from Adams county, Mr. Kimble.

Further Restrictions

In addition to the restrictions as to campaign expenses and the like, the law goes further and prevents employers or others from using any influence of any sort to control the votes of those in their employ. The law prevents the use of force, violence or the rates of injury, damage, harm or loss, or the practice of intimidation in any manner. The law would thus prevent a shop manager or employer from making even a vague threat against any of his employes who might fail to vote as he directed. Further the law prevents the employer from placing any political motto, device or argument, containing even an implied threat, on the pay envelopes of his employes. An employer, under the new law, cannot even post a handbill or placard to the effect that if any election does not result in a particular way, there will be a partial suspension of business or a decrease in wages. An employer making such a statement, even verbally, would be amenable to the new law and might be sent to jail for six months.

This provision of the law is intended to correct an abuse that has been rampant in past years, and that has been used flagrantly and more or less effectively in every presidential campaign.

Close At Noon On Thursdays

Beginning on Thursday of this week, [illegible] Brothers' store will close at noon on Thursday instead of [illegible].

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Girls Go Driving, Horse Runs Away

Miss Hannah Thacker, Miss Agnes Rayburn, Miss Essie Staten and Miss Mary Disterdick started on a drive around "the flag" Monday. Over on the West Side their horse scared at a piece of paper and ran into a wire fence. The girls all jumped out except Miss Thacker, who pluckily held onto the lines and prevented a serious runaway.

The buggy was damaged considerably and the girls had to walk three miles to have it fixed before they could continue their trip to the city. It was almost ten o'clock when they finally reached Portsmouth last night.

TELEPHONE CHANGES

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, July 18—The words "double" and "O" have been stricken from the vocabulary of the Chicago telephone operator. Last week subscribers calling the city hall, for instance, heard the operator repeat "main double for seven." Now all this is changed. "Main four four seven?" asked in question form, is now the response of the girl. Likewise the oft-repeated "Franklin seven double O" has now become "Franklin seven hundred." The double O system in vogue in Chicago for years is said to be a relic of the past and according to the telephone company officials the cause of many mistaken numbers.

NEW JAPANESE TREATY HAS GONE INTO EFFECT

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 17—The new treaty of commerce and navigation between the United States and Japan went into operation today, replacing the old treaty negotiated during Secretary Gresham's administration. The important point of difference between the two conventions lies in the omission from the new convention of the paragraph in the old relating to immigration restrictions which was objectionable to the Japanese, the United States relying upon the honor of Japan to carry out the spirit of existing undertaking which prevents the departure of Japanese coolies to America.

There is also provision for the substitution of the new Japanese customs tariff for the existing general conventional rates. It happens that a similar treaty which Japan has negotiated with France does not become effective until August 4 and in conformity with an agreement between the United States and Japan the new tariff rates will not apply to goods imported into Japan from America until that date.

HELEN GOULD TO RESCUE OF CITY

(By Associated Press.)

Hosbury, N. Y., July 18—Miss Helen Gould who has a home here has signified her intention of presenting Dales Lake, a beautiful mountain reservoir to the town as an addition to the water system. The lake which covers ten acres is supplied by artesian springs and will furnish an unfailing supply.

A BLOOD BUILDER

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured This West Virginia Man.

He Was Anaemic and His Stomach Was in Bad Condition and Ordinary Remedies Did Him No Good.

When the body is weak and the blood thin it is sometimes difficult to find the cause unless a wasting illness has preceded the decline in health.

Obscure influences, something unhealthful in one's surroundings or work, may lead to a slow impoverishment of the blood and an enfeeblement of the whole body. When a serious stage has been reached there seems to be nothing that will account for it.

In such cases a complete change of climate or of work will sometimes effect a cure. It takes a long time, however, and for the great majority of sufferers is out of the question.

Mr. G. E. Legg, of Tipton, W. Va., has found a method of treating weakness and bloodlessness that is simple, cheap, within reach of everybody, and within the limits of his experience successful every time. He says:

"I have tested Dr. Williams' Pink Pills several times personally and they have never yet failed to build up the system [illegible].

"I used them on one occasion for weakness caused by a lingering malarial fever that began in the spring of 1896. The worst effects of it were indigestion and a bad state of my blood. I was anaemic, as the doctors say. People [illegible] would say that I didn't have blood enough, or that I didn't have the right kind of blood; mine was too thin. My kidneys and liver were out of order. I was badly annoyed by [illegible] from my stomach. There was a good deal of pain too, in my back and under my right shoulder blade.

"I was sick for over two years and for most of that time I was under the care of a physician, but his medicine did me no good. Meanwhile I heard of the cures that had been wrought by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. [illegible] Dr. Williams' Pink Pills [illegible]."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, [illegible] per box; six boxes for [illegible], by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. [illegible]

HEAT MAKES CHILDREN ILL

Summer is a very trying period for young children, and many a child who is usually healthy suffers during the heated term. There are many dangers for the child in summer. These lie in milk, food, water, fruit, etc. The greatest peril is from some form of stomach or bowel trouble. It is usually the starting point of graver troubles. The child becomes constipated, or gets indigestion. Perspiration is interfered with, worms develop, the skin becomes scaly and itchy, and the poor child is in much misery. Do not let it go, and trust to luck or fate for a cure. Use a remedy like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is intended to cure that very condition and is especially adapted to children's ills because of its mildness and purity. If the child has any of these symptoms, or has not had a passage in 24 hours, it needs Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at once. It will act promptly but gently, and as it is pleasant to take you will not have to force it. A bottle can be obtained of any druggist at 50 cents or $1.00, and you should obtain a bottle today, so as to have it on hand for an emergency. If you have never tried it you can obtain a SAMPLE BOTTLE FREE OF CHARGE by addressing

HAVEMEYER DEFENDED BY SUGAR TRUST MAN

(By Associated Press.)

New York, July 18.—The sugar probe committee of the House held today's session in this city in order to hear the testimony of John Arbuckle, whois too ill to go to Washington to testify. Several other witnesses will also be heard while the committee is at this city.

W. R. Thomas, chairman of the board of directors of the American Sugar Refining company, was the first witness. He said his father had sold the Standard Sugar company in Boston to the American Sugar Refining company in 1837, the year the merger was effected. He said he could not remember the price paid. He was ordered to get the facts from the Boston office.

He said the American Sugar Refining company was capitalized at $50,000,000 in 1891 and was increased to $75,000,000 when it took over the Philadelphia Sugar Refining company, and to $90,000,000 when it bought the Beet Sugar fields.

He interrupted his testimony to state that nothing he said or that he might say was to be interpreted as anattack upon the late H. O. Havemeyer. He said the latter ran the company fo rthe best interests of the stockholders.

He admitted the American Sugar Refining company bought the Baltimore Sugar Refining company and closed the plant, and then shipped the machinery to New Orleans, where labor could be secured cheaper. He said he did not know of any agreement to limit the output of sugar and added that although he was a director of the American Sugar Refining company, it did not necessarily mean that he knew of such an an agreement as many things existed that Havemeyer did not tell the directors.

Thomas admitted that the trust paid $10,000 a year subscription in the journal an advertisement to a weekly on the sugar trade, in order to be able to have printed telling of the presence of a certain kind of bug in the sugar product of a rival independent company.

They Met In Chicago

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Ill., July 18.—Attorney General Wickersham came quietly to Chicago today and entered into a lengthy conference with former vice-president, Charles K. Fairbanks, who came here just as quietly from Indianapolis. It is rumored that Wickersham came to Chicago to secure from Fairbanks some firsthand information on the situation in Alaska, which Fairbanks secured on his visit to that country.

The latest turn in the Controller Bay controversy, in which the Guggenheims are said to be trying to grab the only available outlet to Alaskan coal, is said to have been causing the administration much worry.

Heyburn Is Bitter

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 18.—Senator Heyburn, Republican, of Idaho, in a characteristic speech in the senate today, denounced the papers of the country for misrepresenting him, and accused all of the reporters of lying and cowardice. He was opposing the bill of Senator Williams of Mississippi for the erection of a Confederate naval monument at the Vicksburg national park. "It is a shame that those who tried to overthrow the government should now be held up as heroes at the government's expense," he concluded.

Williams refused to listen to Heyburn, leaving the senate.

Union Man Caught

(By Associated Press.)

Des Moines, Iowa, July 18—P. J. Murphy, national organizer of the Bridge Workers' Union, is in jail here awaiting arraignment charged with inciting a riot, and alleged to have started trouble between union and non-union bridge workers last night in which several non-union men were beaten up.

STEAL MELONS, 50 ARRESTED

(By Associated Press.)

Akron, O., July 18.—Warrants have been sworn out at Barberton for the arrest of more than 50 persons, who are accused of having broken open a box car and stolen watermelons.

Practically every resident of one street is said to be implicated.

DRINKING CUPS ARE BANISHED

(By Associated Press.)

Lansing, Mich., July 18—Dr. Robert L. Dixon, secretary of the State Board of Health has notified all railroads, steamship lines, and other companies in Michigan, which have for their purpose the conveyance of the public, that after July 20th, they must discontinue the use of public drinking cups in their conveyances or places of business.

Fine Promotion.

Wesley Dupuy who has relatives here, has accepted a position of manager of the Pittsburg Stove & Range Company, and will leave for that city at once. He has been located at Cincinnati for the past few years, where he was manager of the Monitor Stove & Range Company.

Holds Up A Street Car

(By Associated Press.)

Tiffin, O., July 18.—An armed highwayman, singlehanded, held up a Fostoria & Eastern interurban car near this place last midnight. A fight followed between him and the crew all of whom were unarmed. The robber was repulsed and escaped without any booty.

Removed From Job

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., July 18.—The state board of assessors and appraisers today removed William Shamp from the Newark board of review. After his appointment the board discovered that Shamp had been a member of the quadriennial board of assessors, and that as a member of the board of review he would have to review his own work. Shamp took the board's action without complaint. The board refused to remove H. J. M. Stafford from the New Philadelphia board of review on the charges of neglect of duty that had been filed against him.

His Work In Vain

(By Associated Press.)

Baltimore, July 18—Andrew Gernard, 88 years old, is dead here after spending 55 years of his life in a vain effort to solve the problem of perpetual motion.

Gernard was an inventive genius and would have made fortunes on practical inventions if he had been able to dismiss the perpetual motion problem from his mind. As a wedding present to one of his sons, Henry Gernard of Avalon, Ill., he gave the young man a suggestion for a labor saving corn reaper which made $1,000,000 or more in profits.

Ladies Laid Down Law To This Board

At a meeting of the board of education of Washington township held Monday afternoon there were twenty-five ladies present, who talked to the members of the board as they perhaps have never been talked to before.

Some of the ladies, who were so earnestly in favor of a school house being erected at Nauvoo, plainly told the board that school matters should be turned over to the ladies, who had more interest in the education of the children.

The ladies at the meeting represented mothers of fifty-seven school children between the ages of six and eight years.

For some time they have been discussing the plan of erecting a new school building. This must be done at once, and the board not being able to decide the matter at the meeting held yesterday, will meet again tonight at 7 o'clock, when the matter will be definitely settled.

The board is anxious to erect a building at Nauvoo, if they can secure about three-quarters of an acre of ground. One lot can be purchased from J. S. Rapp, and the decision rests with the owner of two adjoining lots, who will be seen this afternoon by a committee of the board.

At the meeting yesterday John S. Jenkins was transferred from district No. 5 to district No. 2, where he will teach this winter, and Harry Beatty was hired to teach district No. 5.

The board has purchased some very fine furniture to be used in the new building, whether it is erected at Hygean Run or Nauvoo.

Called To Columbus

Samuel Wooster, linotype operator at The Times office, was called to Columbus Monday afternoon by the serious illness of his two children, who with their mother are visiting there. A message from Mr. Wooster on Tuesday stated that the children were better and he hoped to be able to return to Portsmouth on Wednesday night.

Close Deal In Real Estate

Attorney Frank Moulton on Tuesday sold a five room house at Fifth and Campbell avenue to Mrs. Anna Goddard. The negotiations were closed by H. A. Bierley. The consideration was $1,600.

Joseph Will Be On Hands

Joe Kountz will leave Friday for Chillicothe where he will see the Champs wind up their present disastrous trip. He will go to Cincinnati Sunday to see the Reds drop a few games as he will take a two weeks' vacation.

Bring Suit On A Note

The Dean Law and Collection Agency Tuesday filed an action before Squire Byron on behalf of Lulu A. Hall against J. L. Smith, to recover off the defendant $31.90 on a promissory note.

Were Released.

Hugh Clemens, and John Davis, the two young men arrested by the police Monday night on suspicion, were discharged Tuesday by Mayor Pfau, and allowed to go on their way.

The men told a plausible story of being out of work and had just gotten in the city when picked up. They claimed to be enroute from Akron to Huntington where they expected to secure work.

Clemens had a box full of phony rings, but claimed he had not offered them for sale here.

Mark A. Crawford made a legal visit to Lucasville. Tuesday,

Best Method Ever Devised.

Talk about the tax payers, the rents demanded in towns and cities where Building and Loan Associations are not prominent factors, the rents are outrageous. The rent payers put up the stuff and are the real back-bone of the town. The town or city needs Building and Loan Associations. Wherever these associations have been established the communities have been enriched. It is the best method of saving money ever devised. It is the co-operative home builder. Keep in mind The Portsmouth Savings and Loan Company, Opera House Block. We pay 5 per cent. on deposits compounded semi-annually.

A Million More People Can now afford Automobiles

The Liberty-Brush

at last has brought the automobile within the reach of every man.

A million buggies are sold in America to horse owners every year.

All these owners can now use a motor car at less cost—and do more work in less time.

It only costs to run—One cent a mile—cheaper than a trolley

THOUSANDS have been waiting for the day when they could afford a motor car.

That day is here for a million more people—people who have been buying buggies and driving horses both for business and pleasure.

It is here for thousands of other people who do not use horses, who depend on public conveyances, submit to unnecessary discomforts and delays, and suffer consequent loss of time and business.

Every horse owner can buy and maintain a Liberty-Brush automobile, costing $350, for less money than it costs to keep a horse.

The others—if they are compelled by business to cover large areas, earning more money the quicker they cover their territory—will find the Liberty-Brush cheaper than any public conveyance, cheaper even than the trolley. They can widen their territory, and increase their earning powers.

The pleasures of motoring are too well known to need more than mention. The Liberty-Brush opens this field of recreation and healthful pleasure.

This is not extravagant talk. It is fact. Consider it carefully in your own case.

The Liberty-Brush is not a low-priced imitation of a big motor car—it is a real automobile—a machine designed and built according to accepted best standards. The forerunner of the Liberty-Brush mechanically is the successful Brush runabout, thousands of which are giving satisfactory service.

It has a long stroke vertical motor of 10-horsepower, thermo-syphon cooling system, multiple-disc clutches, selective transmission, double side-chain drive, bevel-gear differential, artillery wheels, internal expanding brakes, pneumatic tires and shock-absorbing devices under Truffault-Hartford patents. In every particular the Liberty-Brush is an automobile at a price easily within reach of EVERYMAN.

This car is manufactured by the Brush Division of the United States Motor Company, the largest producers of high-grade automobiles in the world. By large quantity buying and manufacturing, the Liberty-Brush is made to sell at a price hitherto considered impossible for a standard automobile.

The full guarantee of the United States Motor Company goes with every Liberty-Brush. The benefit of experience in making the Brush runabouts is utilized in the construction of the Liberty-Brush, and the price of the car, $350, leaves a profit which would be ridiculously small were it not for the vast number produced.

The designers of this car, which has proved the biggest gun ever fired in motordom, know that it is capable of running 35,000 miles. They are confident of this if the car is given reasonable care, for Past records of Brush automobiles show what you may expect of the Liberty-Brush.

Think of running once-and-a-half around the globe in your own car—think of the many months, years, during which you will get capable service from your Liberty-Brush. You can learn to operate it in fifteen minutes.

As to cost—in many official tests and in the hands of owners, the Brush has proved most economical. We know that many Brush cars have run more than 25,000 miles at a cost of 1 1/5 cents a mile, or six-tenths of a cent per mile per passenger, including all maintenance charges.

On the day when the Liberty-Brush arrived, the Fourth of July, 109 Brush runabouts in 109 different cities ran 100 miles, and their performances proved the claims made for the Liberty-Brush.

The fastest car averaged 28.17 miles per hour and the slowest, 11.1.

The highest economy average was 48.4 miles per gallon, and the lowest average was 15.38.

The lowest oil consumption was 1 gill for 100 miles and the highest was 2 qts.

Now consider this:

The average speed was 18.9 miles per hour. The average mileage on one gallon of gasoline was 25.9 miles. The average consumption of oil was 609 miles per gallon.

As to reliability: Only six adjustments were made, three to carburetors and three to spark plugs.

At this cost of operation and this initial cost, who can say "I cannot afford an automobile"? Mercantile concerns can see in this an economic business proposition for salesmen, solicitors, inspectors, or for quick, light delivery.

Five days after the announcement of the Liberty-Brush we had received 2,585 inquiries by mail and telegraph from dealers, firms, and individuals looking towards its purchase. Hundreds of inquiries continue to come every day.

We will have a Liberty-Brush dealer in every county, and some territory remains open. Liberty-Brush users will find representatives everywhere who are prepared to care for these cars.

Orders for cars will be filled strictly in the rotation in which they are received, and we urge prompt action if you would obtain a Liberty-Brush automobile at an early date.

For particulars, address Sales Manager, Liberty-Brush division. He will refer you to the nearest dealer or give you your own territory.

air Will Speak At Ross County Meet

Chillicothe, O., July 18.—On Wednesday, August 2, at Maple Grove Hotel, a county field meeting will be held, under the auspices of the Ross County Election Association, for the purpose of discussing the formation of an organization which will have as its object the preventing and discouraging of any illegal practices in connection with elections in Ross county.

Judge A. Z. Blair, of Portsmouth, and several local men will deliver addresses upon the suppression and prevention of vote buying, and an endeavor will be made to perfect an organization which will have representatives in every locality, and in each party.

The committee in charge of arrangements is at present perfecting the details of the program, which will be announced in full within the next few days. An invitation will be extended to everyone to attend this meeting and every effort will be made to arrange a program which will permit the matter to be discussed from the point of view of the different elements of the electorate who all unite in opposition to all corrupt practices in elections.

Plan A Medical School To Teach The Chinese

(By Associated Press.)

Cambridge, Mass., July 18—The establishment of a great medical school in China which will aid to teach the Chinese the necessity of adopting the modern systems of medicines and hygiene is about to become a reality and next February the doors of the big college will be thrown open in Shanghai.

The project is sponsored by the Harvard Medical School and one of the Harvard professors, Dr. Martin Russell Edwards will head the new school. He will have a corps of fifteen Harvard assistants. Among those interested in the project are President Taft and President Emeritus Eliot of Harvard.

Dr. Edwards believes that the establishment of the school will be the beginning of the end of the dread bubonic plague, of cholera and leprosy.

C. & O. Freight Was Ditched At Concord

The C. & O. had a bad freight wreck about 4 o'clock Tuesday morning at point two miles east of Concord.

The engine of freight No. 71 left the track and ditched five loaded steel hopper coal cars. Fortunately, none of the train crew was hurt. The wrecking train from Russell cleared the track by 5:30, and no delay was occasioned to the passenger service.

As usual, the C. & O. was lucky again in the escape of its trainmen from injury. An old railroad man says the C. & O. has fewer head-on collisions than any other large road in the country, and these are always the most fatal and disastrous.

HEAD WAS SCALY HAIR ALL CAME OUT

And Baby's Face Broke Out in Red Bumps. Spread on Hands and Arms. Got Worse All the Time.

Mother Says, "I Don't Think Anything Else Would Have Cured Him Except Cuticura."

"When my first baby was six months old he broke out on his head with little bumps. They would dry up and leave a scale. Then it would break out again and it spread all over his head. A little hair came out and his head was scaly all over. Then [illegible] his face broke out in red bumps and it kept spreading until it was on his hands and arms. [illegible] had [illegible] treat him, but he got worse all the time. He had it about six months when a friend told me about Cuticura. I bought a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. In three days after using them he began to improve. He began to take long naps and to stop scratching his head. After taking two bottles of Resolvent, two boxes of Ointment and three cakes of Soap he was sound and well, and never had any breaking out of any kind. His hair came out in little curls all over his head. I don't think anything else would have cured him except Cuticura.

"I have bought Cuticura Ointment and Soap several times since to use for cuts and sores and have never known them to fail to cure what I put them on. Cuticura Soap is the best that I have ever used for toilet purposes." (Signed) Mrs. F. E. Harmon, R. F. D. 2, Atoka, Tenn., Sept. 10, 1910.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Send to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 14B, Boston, for a liberal sample of each, post-free, with 32-p. book on the skin.

WELLESLEY GRADS SIGN PETITIONS

(By Associated Press.)

Wellesley, Mass., July 18—Alumnae of Wellesley in all parts of the country are signing petitions asking that Professor Martha Dale Shackford be made dean of the college. The trustees are about to undertake the selection of a successor to Miss Ellen Fitz Pendleton who left the deanship to become president. Miss Shackford is well known as an author and has for many years been prominent in Wellesley alumni activities.

DALTON LOST HIS ROLL

Jack Dalton, of Dalton Bros., is minus a pocket book containing about $25.00. Jack performed the unusual act of picking his own pocket. He was riding and driving on the seat of a binder, between Pond Run and Sugar Grove. His wallet was in his hip pocket, and fearing it might fall out, he placed it under him on the seat. When he arrived at his destination, the wallet was missing. Dalton made a careful search over the route he had come, but it seems that somebody else had "beat him to it."

SHOOTING GIRLS ON THE STAGE

New York, July 18—Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad, who shot W. E. D. Stokes, millinaire, and recently left the Tombs on $5,000 bail, made their first appearance as vaudeville headliners at Hammerstein's Victoria theatre Monday.

They were greeted by a crowded house and enthusiastically applauded.

Handsome gowns, several songs and a little dancing made up their act.

There were loud calls for a speech, but the "shooting show girls" did not respond.

"After we have done this act a few times we will be ready to have the [illegible] [illegible] us," Miss Conrad said last night.

Candidates Entering Race

Adam Pfau, vice mayor, is circulating a petition and will again be a candidate for that office on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Pfau has been vice-mayor for two years and has made a most excellent record in office. It is not likely that he will have any opposition for the nomination, at least none has developed to date.

Sanford Linck circulated cards Monday announcing himself as a candidate for mayor on the Democratic ticket. His cards promise "a square deal to everybody," and that is his platform.

John W. Byron, for four years justice of the peace, is a candidate for another term and is circulating his petition as a Democratic candidate. Mr. Byron has made a most excellent record in his office, and by his fair and impartial rulings, has made scores of friends.

There bids fair to be a contest at the Democratic primary for the office of City Solicitor. Attorney James S. Thomas, who was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Horace L. Small, will be a candidate for another term, and Attorney Stanley McCall is being urged by friends to enter the field. Mr. McCall graduated this spring from the Michigan University law school with high honors and also passed the state bar examination with high grades. He has decided to locate in Portsmouth and will soon open an office here. Attorney McCall is a son of Dr. E. O. McCall, prominent Democratic politician.

K-C Outing At Cedar Point

Sandusky, O., July 18.—About three thousand Knights of Columbus, many accompanied by families and friends, already on the scene, the annual outing of the K. of C. order in Ohio began Monday at Cedar Point. It will be K. of C. week until 12 o'clock next Saturday night.

The entertainment program was arranged by Lorain Council No. 637. Next Thursday has been designated as "Lorain day," when the Lorain board of commerce and several thousand citizens will visit the resort. For the first time in the history of the K. of C. the Alhambra degree will be put on outside of a regularly designated council hall. The exemplification has been listed for next Wednesday by the Almanzor Caravan No. 2 of Lorain. Many prominent knights will take the degree. A great many priests of the Catholic diocese of Cleveland will mingle with the knights through one or several of the days through which the outing will run.

Autoist Has Kick On Loose Cows

Allowing cows, calves and pigs to run at large on the public highways seems to be a favorite rule, rather than an exception in some parts of the county. One autoist telephoned The Times on Tuesday that in a fourteen mile drive Monday evening he passed 17 cows, three calves and pigs without number.

"And yet," said the autoist, "had I hit a cow or a calf or a pig and run the chance of breaking my neck and wrecking my machine, there would have been a howl about reckless driving, and the farmers have come up with a claim for damages."

German Review Of Our Banking System

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, July 18.—The banking legislation in the United States has been based upon the mistaken policy of putting security of assets in the place of first importance at the expense of fluidity, is one of the many interesting observations to be found in a new volume just published by the National Monetary commission. It is an English translation of the stenographic notes of the proceedings of the German Monetary commission.

In the discussion of resources it was pointed out that it was only necessary to secure that fluidity demanded by a bank's position in a national system, or by the character of the times. Herr Strell, holding that the central bank was one of the most reliable means of avoiding all crises, declared:

"As far as I can make out no bank has ever been ruined through lack of cash. It has always been the rotten assets, the worthless debtors and the loss of credit."

The German commission consisted of 25 members chosen because of their prominence as economists, practical bankers, and men of affairs. Herr Havenstein, president of the Reichsbank, was chairman; Prof. Adolph Wagner of Berlin University, and W. Lexis, of the University of Gottingen, Arthur Fischel, of Mendelssohn & Co., and A. Schmidt, of the Krupp Co., were representative members of the commission.

The discussions of the commission were general in nature, and had reference to all classes of German banks and credit institutions from the land mortgage associations, agricultural improvement banks and cooperative credit societies to the eight great joint-stock banks, and the Reichsbank.

Of the suggestions made, the one concerning the establishment of a Government bureau of supervision was debated at the greatest length. The commission seemed strongly against government interference of any kind. A number of the commissioners among them were Mommsen, Gotlard, Weber, Schinckel, Lexis and Riesser appeared to be opposed to any governmental interference whatever, until Herr Roland Lucke, a landed proprietor, suggested the appointment of a permanent bank commission. The commission was to be made up of practical bankers, business men and economists. Its functions were to be merely advisory. The commission was to keep informed of the current banking practice and the general financial condition of the country and to offer suggestions to the various financial institutions whenever a change of banking procedure was advisable. It was thought that suggestions offered to the president of the Reichsbank could be handed on to the other banking institutions and that the suggestions would be carried out, because of the nature of their source. The proposition that a permanent advisory commission be appointed by the government was received with favor by the majority of the Bank inquiry commission. Those members opposed to a bureau holding mandatory powers as well as those favoring such a bureau voted in favor of the proposition.

That it is a fallacy to regard bank reserves as unproductive was clearly shown by Prof. Wagner. "Nothing could be more fallacious," he says, "than to regard them as unproductive. They do not yield interest directly, and from the standpoint of the individual owner they are not meant to bring [illegible] they are essential to the conduct of his enterprise and therefore are theoretically productive."

NOTICE TO NON RESIDENTS

Sarah Hunt, Geo. W. Ackerman, John M. Breen, Geo. Griffith, Michael Coriell, Ella R. Berry, Elizabeth Southworth are hereby notified that on the 28th day of March, A. D., 1911, the Council of the City of Portsmouth, State of Ohio, duly adopted Resolution No. [illegible], a copy of which is as follows:

RESOLUTION NO. [illegible]

Declaring it necessary to improve Ninth Street from the West Side of Kendall Avenue to the East Bank of Lawson's Run, by grading, setting curbs and gutters, constructing the necessary drains and retaining walls, paving the roadway with hard burned or vitrified brick, determining the general nature of the improvement, the grade thereof, and approving plans, specifications, estimates and profiles therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Portsmouth, State of Ohio, three-fourths of all the members elected thereto, concurring, as follows:

Section 1. That it is hereby declared necessary to improve Ninth street from the west side of Kendall avenue to the east bank of Lawson's Run by grading the same, setting curbs and gutters, constructing the necessary drains and retaining walls, paving the roadway with vitrified or hard burned brick, and Council hereby determines that such shall be the general nature of the improvement.

Sec. 2. That said improvement shall be made in accordance with the plans, specifications, estimates and profiles of said proposed improvement designated 9 C— now on file in the office of the Director of Public Service, which said plans, specifications, estimates and profiles are hereby approved.

Sec. 3. That the grade or elevation of the curbs of said street between the points mentioned be and the same is hereby determined and established as follows.

NORTH CURB. Beginning at the west property line of Kendall avenue at an elevation of 57.09 feet, thence descending at the rate of 0.4 (tenths) of a foot per 100 feet for 567 feet to an elevation of 54.74 feet; thence level across Race street, a distance of 50 feet at said elevation of 54.74 feet; thence ascending at the rate of 0.5 (tenths) of a foot per 100 feet for 760 feet to an elevation of 58.57 feet.

SOUTH CURB. Beginning at the west property line of Kendall avenue at an elevation of 57.09 feet thence descending at the rate of 0.383 of a foot per 100 feet for 575 feet to an elevation of 54.74 feet, thence ascending at the rate of 0.490 of a foot per 100 feet for 175 feet to an elevation of 55.57 feet.

The grade or elevation of the center of said street shall be the same level as the curbs thereof.

Sec. 4. That the whole cost of said improvement, less one-fiftieth thereof and the cost of street and alley intersections, shall be assessed by the foot frontage upon the following lots and lands to-wit: all lots and lands abounding and abutting upon said proposed improvement, which said lots and lands are hereby determined to be especially benefited by said improvement, and the cost of said improvement shall include the expense of the preliminary and other surveys, of printing and publishing the notices, resolutions and ordinances required, the serving of said notices, the cost of construction, together with interest on bonds issued in anticipation of the collection of deferred assessments and all other necessary expenditures.

Sec. 5. That the assessments so to be levied shall be paid in ten annual installments with interest on deferred payments at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, provided that the owner of any property assessed may at his option pay such assessment in cash within thirty days after the passage of the assessing ordinance, in which case said cash assessment shall not include any item of interest upon bonds to be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments.

Sec. 6. That bonds of the City of Portsmouth, State of Ohio, shall be issued in anticipation of the collection of assessments by installments and in an amount equal thereto.

Sec. 7. That the remainder of the entire cost of said improvements, not especially assessed, including the cost of intersections, together with the cost of any real estate or interest therein, purchased or appropriated, and the cost and expense of any appropriating proceedings therefor and the damages awarded any owner of adjoining lands or interest therein, and the cost and expense of any such award, shall be paid by the City of Portsmouth, State of Ohio, out of the proceeds of the sale of bonds to be issued by said City for such purposes in the manner provided by law.

Sec. 8. This Resolution shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

ADAM PFAU, President.

THE FAMOUS

RUNAWAY WIFE SAID WAS IN PORTSMOUTH

Huntington, W. Va., July 18—That his wife, who is said to have eloped with another man will again be received at his home on Fourth avenue near Twentieth street, provided she can prove her innocence, was the statement of Edward Waldron to a reporter this morning.

Mrs. Waldron came to Huntington last night and went straight to see her husband, leaving after a few minutes conversation of a nature that must necessarily have been painful, a trace of which was indicated in the talk of Waldron this morning.

"A man can't forget his love for a woman all in a minute," said Waldron.

"I loved her better than I loved my own soul, and if she can show that she was with relatives in Portsmouth, instead of with that man Bailey, I will gladly take her back," he said, and the yearning in his voice betrayed his hopes that she would be able to show that she was innocent of the gross charges that had been made.

"I will spend a thousand dollars to help her show that she is innocent, and I would spend a million if I had it," he continued.

"She was a good mother to my children and helped me save. Of course there has been a lot of bad talk around here, but if my wife's story is true, they will have to talk the other way.

"If she has been wronged, I will help her to justify herself and I would fight for her in a minute," continued the husband, as he indicated his intentions of leaving Huntington today in order to verify the statements that his wife made after she returned last night.

"I will be gone about three days, and when I come back I will be able to tell you more," continued Waldron.

"But there is one thing I would like for you to do. That is to correct, the statement that I tried to commit suicide after she went away, for I didn't.

"I'm all broke up about it, and I'm a nervous wreck on account of it, for I trusted her, and for all I knew she was straight."

The story of Waldron's troubles filled a sensational column in the local newspapers several weeks ago when it was reported that his wife had eloped with Ed Bailey, a horse-trader.

Waldron sought the aid of the police seemingly crazed by the sudden blight that had fallen upon his household. Various stories concerning his vagaries were circulated and the police pulled every wire to give him news that his wife had been located and that Bailey was under arrest.

Their efforts were to no avail, however and absolutely no trace of them was found until Mrs. Waldron stepped off a Chesapeake & Ohio train last night.

She went at once to her former home, saying that the alleged elopement was not true and that she had been staying with her relatives in Portsmouth, who would verify her story.

Mrs. Lambert's Card.

In a card to The Times Mrs. Lambert denied that a man named [illegible] lost $12 at her boarding house as he claimed to the police [illegible] Friday. She says Rice only had $7, and that out of that he paid her for her room. She says he owed several other persons, but that he said he was not going to pay them.

Mr. Boyd Better.

James Boyd, whose serious illness of quinsy has been noted in the Times, is much better. His friends will be glad to learn that he is able to be out again.

PLUCKY GIRL FIRES ON A MIDNIGHT PROWLER

Quite a burglar scare was experienced at the Clark home, 380 Jackson street, at a late hour Monday night, when Miss Dorothy Clark, a young woman of the household was awakened by a prowler.

The young woman promptly secured her trusty revolver from under her pillow and fired three shots out of a window to frighten the intruder and arouse her mother and sister in another part of the house.

The shots served the purpose, for the fellow vanished before Officer Cooper, who was sent to investigate, could reach the scene.

OUR TAX DUPLICATE

Of the total Scioto county tax duplicate, now being made up under the appraisement made in 1910, which is expected to reach more than forty-five million dollars, it is estimated that the valuation will be divided with Twenty-five Million to this city and the remaining Twenty Million in the county.

Albert Wilhelm Visits Old Home

Albert D. Wilhelm, a Portsmouth boy now located in Buffalo, New York, was here Tuesday shaking hands with old friends. Mr. Wilhelm and his wife have been visiting in Cincinnati and he came up to spend the day at his old home, returning to Cincinnati on the afternoon train.

Mr. Wilhelm is a son of John D. Wilhelm, the tinner. Leaving here when a mere boy, he secured a clerkship with the Mabley & Carew Co., of Cincinnati, and worked up to the position of buyer for one of the departments of that store. Later he left them to take a better position in Indianapolis, and from there went to Buffalo seven years ago to take a position with the big department store of H. A. Meldrum & Co. He is now buyer for the china and housefurnishing departments of the store.

Mr. Wilhelm is looking exceedingly well and was warmly greeted by his boyhood friends here.

24 Hour Garage

Theo. Doty and Charles Doerr have just completed a very neat little garage, which was built near their camp, eight miles north of the city. They designed it and practically built it in 24 hours.

OPERATED ON AT HOSPITAL

Arthur Greenough, of 59 East Seventh street, was removed to the Hempstead hospital Tuesday in Pfeiffer's ambulance and he immediately underwent an operation for appendicitis. He rallied admirably and will recover rapidly, according to his physician. Greenough had been ill for a week.

CHAS. GOULD SOLD HOTEL

Charles Gould, who is well known here, has disposed of his interests in the new Ironton House, at Ironton, and has returned to South Point. Clerk Harry Butler is temporarily in charge of the hotel.

Sprained Wrists

Miss Millie Coriell, of 354 East Eighth street, is unable to attend to her duties as operator at the Bell telephone exchange on account of an accident of which she was the victim.

The accident occurred Saturday at Millbrook park, when in running to beat a companion to a swing, she slipped and fell, severely spraining both wrists. She will be detained from her work for several days from her injuries, which are very painful.

To Resume Probe

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 18—At an executive session of the Stanley Steel committee today it was decided to resume hearings in this city Thursday. Commissioner of Corporations, Herbert Knox Smith, and other officials in that bureau, will testify.

On July 27 the committee will meet in New York, and the question of calling J. Pierpoint Morgan and former president Theo. Roosevelt to testify there is now under consideration.

A resolution adopted today ordered the accountant for the committee to go to Pittsurg to examine books and papers of the U. S. Steel corporation and its subsidiaries.

KILLED BY A C. & O. TRAIN

Ed. McKee, a Huntington man, was killed by a C. & O. train at Catlettsburg, Ky., Saturday about midnight. He was intoxicated and walked on the railroad track. McKee was 29, and was employed as driven by a Huntington transfer company. He leaves a wife and three children.

2 ARRESTED ON SUSPICION

A pair of suspicious characters who gave their names as Hugh Clemens and John Davis, were arrested late Monday night by the police and locked up.

The conduct of the men as they ambled about the streets attracted the attention of an officer, who shadowed them and at a late hour caught them trying to sell a ring to an employe of the Knight lunch stand. They were then taken into custody on the spot and taken to the police station, where they will be held pending an investigation.

Good Night To Sleep

Last night was one of the good times for doing some real sure enough sleeping. The mercury got away down at an early hour last evening, so that it was delightfully cool, giving the populace a season for mixing it up with Morpheus, and surely there were many who made up some of the loss of sleep that they had suffered during the protracted heated season.

Had Fine Time On Lima Trip

Wesley and Walter Gableman returned Monday night from Lima, where they spent a couple of days with their brother, Edwin Gableman. They saw Sunday's game, and claim it was certainly a tough one for the Champs to lose.

Casino's Play Is Pleasing

As funny as "Charley's Aunt," and as complicated as "What Happened to Jones," the new play at the Casino, "The Benefit of the Doubt," presented for the first time Monday night, pleased immensely. It is a complete change and a refreshing one from what has been produced by the Berthelet players, and the piece should enjoy a highly profitable week.

It is delightfully interpreted, the action being of the rapid-fire order. The situations are not overdrawn, and the delicious comedy, which ran for six months at the Herald Square theatre in New York, should prove to be one of the very best plays of the season. There is an interesting love story revealed, "hubby" gets in bad and the villain comes into his own. The play is beautifully staged, the scene in Mr. Pontifax's flat in the first act being particularly effective.

Mr. Minturn, in the role of Septimus Pontifax, is perfectly at home. He displayed commendable versatility and handles the difficult part cleverly. He has much to do and is equal to the task. Around him revolves the action of the comedy. As Millicent Pontifax, Miss Louise Kent is seen in a light and airy role. She is quite reminful of Marie Tempest and contributes much to the success of the play. Her gowns as usual are stunning.

Roy Gordon, as Richard Diggle, Jack Herbert as Fraser Green, Frances Pierlot as James, the servant, and Mr. Berthelet as the detective, were seen to their best advantage. Mr. Berthelet made a capital sleuth and his lines were very good. Mr. Pierlot, as usual, was very pleasing. Miss Guise, as the inimitable mother-in-law, was very strenuous and she had much to do. The comedy is a family affair from start to finish and the unraveling of the humorous entanglements afforded an evening of real pleasure. There is continuity to the plot, and "The Benefit of the Doubt" should shatter the attendance record so far this season.

Mr. Sidney Anderson, a local boy, appeared in the role of a copper, and he wore the brass buttons and the blue very acceptably. He is rendering some valuable assistance in his "bit" parts.

A MOTHER'S DUTY

It is the duty of every expectant mother to prepare her system for the coming of her little one; to avoid as far as possible the suffering of such occasions, and endeavor to pass through the crisis with her health and strength unimpaired. This she may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for external application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and a benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information.

Even Lowly Lanks Pulverize Champs

By Blondy Walker

Lancaster, July 18.—Harter started off like a whirlwind at the yard Monday afternoon, and struck out eight of the first eleven men that faced him. After that the curve artist lost his effectiveness, and lost out, the final count going to the Lanks by the score of 5 to 4.

"Jack" Frost was on the mound for Lancaster, and pitched a steady and consistent game of ball. He should have easily defeated the champs. The first two runs were made on three rank errors, when not a man should have seen first.

It was an up-hill game from the beginning, and the Lanks never quit pounding away. Frost demonstrated the fact that he was a real pitcher in the final round. Harter was walked, and Homer Cain sacrificed. The next two hitters could do no more than hit a couple of slow grounders to the infield.

Homer Cain was given the lead as batter, and was accorded a big ovation when he stepped to the plate. Although Homer did not get any bingles he played a swell game and scored two of the Champs' runs. Emmett rested and Hornung took his usual place at short. The injury that Cain received at Hamilton has put him in a sort of bad condition. It is probable, however that he will play today.

The Lanks presented a crippled team. Conley was at short, Bobby Anderson played second with an injured knee, and Cheney occupied the outfield. At that the boys displayed lots of pepper and won by keeping at it.

Cain, first up, hit to Conley, who booted the ball all over the lot. Manager Childs also slammed the sphere to Hughey, who threw the ball over the first baseman's head. Potts managed to hit a high one to center, and Homer scored from third. Another error by Currans on Weinberg's grounder, allowed the other tally.

In the fifth Potts struck out, but Geib dropped the ball and the right fielder beat the throw to first. A stolen base, and Weinberg's two sacker scored Potts. Weinberg was out at third trying to stretch the hit into three bases.

In the seventh an error, and two hits, gave the Champs their last run.

The Lanks could do nothing with Harter until the fifth inning, when he was hit for two clouts, and errors by Edwards and Hornung gave them two counts.

The team blew up all of a sudden and the Lanks romped [illegible] in great style.

In the eighth another was added on two bingles and some slow fielding on the part of Edwards.

In the ninth Harter hit Rudolph and Frost, and two hits sandwiched in gave the Lanks the winning run.

It was an up-hill pull all the way. One run, we will say, was earned, but the other three taken by the Champs, were on errors. It is true that the Lanks also started their winning streak by the errors of the Cobblers but at that they also hit with men on the cushions.

Ironton Gets 2 Players

TY'S BRO. IS A COMER

Ty Cobb's younger brother, Paul, who is playing with the Lincoln club of the Western league, stands a fair chance of being given another trial in fast company one of these days. Paul is hitting like a fiend these days, and no doubt some manager will take a chance in the hope of developing him into a player something like his illustrious brother. Paul is a right handed hitter, fairly fast, but several years Ty's junior. He batted over .300 last year, but his fielding was so poor that he was not given a trial with any of the major league clubs. This year he seems to have greatly improved in his field work.

Sunday School League Formed Monday Night

At a meeting held at the First Christian church Monday evening, it was unanimously decided to merge the Bigelow Methodist church league and the First Christian church league into the Bigelow-Christian Baseball league, each Sunday School to be represented by two teams each.

The Race track has been secured, and all games, commencing next Saturday afternoon, will be played there.

An organization was perfected by the election of F. W. Sheridan president, and Earl Reed secretary treasurer.

A schedule committee was named and its report will be published in Wednesday's Times. It was decided to employ a regular umpire, and it is quite likely that John Doherty will be selected. He gave splendid satisfaction as an arbitrator in the games played at Coney Island between the teams representing the Christian church league, which organization was forced to disband, owing to the grounds being taken away from the league.

The Bigelow Sunday School will be represented by two teams which should be able to give a splendid account of themselves, while the managers of the two teams that will represent the Christian church Sunday School, declare that they will have aggregations that will make the Bigelow boys step some.

A spirit of friendly rivalry will undoubtedly be the result, and spectators can be assured of seeing some fine games. It is thought the attendance will also be one of the strong factors, creating more interest. If it is found necessary the league will charter a street car each Saturday, thereby insuring the players and spectators ample accommodations to and from the grounds.

The diamond will be placed in the best possible shape, and the league will start off with a flourish next Saturday afternoon. The first game will be between Bigelow No. 1 and Christian No. 1 and will start promptly at 1:30. The second game between Bigelow No. 2 and Christian No. 2 will follow immediately at the close of the first game. No admission will be charged to any of the games unless the league decides to give a big outing later in the season.

Dennas Thomas will manage Christian No. 1, while a manager for Christian No. 2 will be selected at the ball grounds, Saturday afternoon. In the meantime Charles M. Rowland will get together a bunch of players to represent this team.

STALLINGS WILL NOT MANAGE THE REDS

George Stallings, manager of the Buffalo ball club of the Eastern league, will continue to manage the Buffalo club. At least he will not manage the Cincinnati club. Stallings is not under consideration by the directors of the Cincinnati team as successor to Griffith. "And no one else is at this time," said August Herrmann, who is at home from his Eastern trip. "There hasn't been and I will not be a meeting of the directors in the near future. The team isn't playing ball and we are losing games that we should not lose. So far as I know Griffith will finish the season. I have not discussed with anyone a successor to him and it seems to me that all this talk only makes matters worse. We may secure some new players this week. We are negotiating with one major league club and with several minor league club owners for players, and expect to land some new material very shortly.

There doesn't seem to be any doubt but that the first experiments to be made will be at the short field and at second base. The biggest disappointment this year has been in the play that Egan has furnished the club. Considered one of the classiest of second sackers, he has fallen away to where he is one of the weakest. The short field has been a problem for several years, and while the material tried at that point has been a disappointment the failure did not come as unexpectedly as the falling away of Dick Egan at second.

It is likely that when the Reds get home the public will get a chance to see new faces in several positions. But it is not likely that there will be a new manager soon.

LET US HOPE SO

Chillicothe, O., July 18.—By the time the Cobblers have reached here they will probably have kicked over the traces and busted their losing streak. That's just our luck.

MUST HAVE A RABBIT FOOT

Bridgeport, Conn., July 18.—The wreck of the Federal express here last week, and the escape of the St. Louis baseball team, has drawn attention to the fact that never in the history of professional baseball has a player been killed in a railroad accident. The major league clubs travel about [illegible] miles each year.

Prodigals Released Pitcher

Springfield, O., July 18.—Overman, the college pitcher, was given his release yesterday by Manager O'Day, and it is said a new twirler will be sent to the local camp by the Indianapolis team. O'Day did not want to take any chances with Overman, with the team fighting for first place and the fans did not have the pleasure of seeing him pitch a game. He pitched part of a game at Lima, but was hit hard and was taken out.

Doyle Saw Ironton Game

Billy Doyle, scout for the St. Louis Browns, was one of the spectators at Sunday's game, says the Irontonian. Billy has been canvassing a number of the players in this league, particularly French, the Twins' Shortstop. He also paid a nice compliment to Grover, and thought Brown a heady, all around player.

Werman, he says, has been a sensational fielder for a number of years, and he has seen him in action on other circuits. Doyle is the man who closed the deal with Huntington for Bumgardner.

Joe Willis Is Star

If Dick can get his release from the Three-Eye league, he expects to go West, where he has several very flattering offers. He will go away in the Eye league and numerous offers have the Irontonian. Willis, the Ironton boy, is easily the best pitcher in the Three-Eye league and numerous offers have been made for him, all of which have been declined.

Evers May Coach Yale

New Haven, Conn., July 18.—There is a belief prevalent here that Johnny Evers, the famous crack Chicago baseball player, will be secured to coach the New Haven ball team. Johnny's injury has affected him so much that his continued playing is doubtful. His ability as a coach is well known, and he would be worth a great deal to old Eli's squad. Prominent graduates all over the country have been urged to get into touch with Evers and endeavor to get him to come to Yale.

New Manager For Maysville

Maysville has secured A. K. Shelton of Huntington, W. Va., to manage the Maysville team for the rest of the season. Mr. Shelton, whose home is at Huntington, was with the Pittsburg [illegible] in 1909, but the first part of this year was the star outfielder of the Huntington team of the Mountain State league.

Breen Had A Great Day

Dicky Breen had a great day last Saturday with the [illegible] team. He [illegible] out two triples and a double [illegible] Pueblo. Breen is still [illegible] mark, and is one of the star outfielders of the Western league.

Talks About Sale Of Lancaster Team

Speaking of the sale of the Lancaster club, mention of which was made in Monday's Times, the Daily Eagle of that place, has the following to say:

"After quietly getting rid of the Cain brothers, President George Buff, owner of the Lancaster Ohio State Baseball club, sold his franchise to an unknown Columbus party, Saturday. The deal was not made known until Monday, as the Ohio State Journal did not print the story concerning the sale.

"The news was received in Lancaster with much surprise and considerable amount of comment was heard on the streets. Mr. Buff, after getting a good price for Emmett and Homer Cain from Portsmouth, lets the Lancaster club go. He was seen Monday morning, and when asked concerning the sale, admitted that he had disposed of his holdings, and would be out of the baseball business entirely. Mr. Buff did not disclose the purchaser as he stated that he had sold the club through President Robert Read. He said that the new owner of the club would arrive in Lancaster Monday evening to assume full charge.

Mr. Buff has owned and controlled the Lancaster ball club for two seasons. Last year was his first trial and he claimed that he lost considerable money. This last spring, after a great effort, he succeeded in raising about $1,000. It was then he assured the business men of Lancaster he would go through the season. Now that he has sold the franchise to an unknown party it looks as if there might be something done in more ways than one.

If the Columbus party will keep the team in Lancaster, and has any backing at all, he should be even more successful in handling the team than the late owner.

Mr. Buff stated this morning that he had taken in about $2,500 at the yard this year and paid out to the visiting clubs about $2,300. He did not say how much he had made while on the road. However, he did not hesitate to say that he had lost money and was willing to quit.

"The deal of the Cain brothers helped out considerably as he received a fancy price from Portsmouth. Mr. Buff stated that he got a great deal more than the draft price for the two stars. The two Cains will wear a Champ uniform at the park this afternoon, and from now on are the property of the Portsmouth baseball club.

"The players all seem at sea over the affair, and are not very well pleased with the deal. They are of the opinion that Mr. Buff has left them without much of a show and has broken up the team before selling the franchise.

"One thing that seems strange, and that is that Mr. Buff is not able to disclose the purchaser of the team. He remarked that he did not see the party and left the deal to President Read to close. He said that he did not get much more than the price of the franchise for the club. But be that as it may, all the fans want is someone who will run the team and get a bunch of ball players in the city. The team started out at a merry clip and at present has been playing excellent ball. Attendance while the team was at the top or around there was not to be complained of. If the new, unknown owner has any baseball judgment, he will put a couple of players in here who will give the Lanks a brace. The fans don't care whether Mr. Buff runs the team or not. All they want is a team that plays ball and finishes around the first division."

Buckeyes Too Much For Speedy Spiders

By a score of 9 to 8 the Buckeyes, Portsmouth's crack colored aggregation, defeated the Spiders, Sunday afternoon.

Had it not been for the wildness of Hanson, the Buckeyes' twirler, the Spiders would have been walloped by a lop-sided score. The colored lads pounded the ball all over the field, securing 18 bingles.

The hitting of Kountz, Haley and Fox featured.

The Buckeyes are no worthy for any team in the city. Midgets preferred.

Roast 39 For Raph

The Hamilton baseball club ought to send an official letter to the Reds and complain about this man Raphun. It was noised about the other day by a man who claims to have heard the fresh young umpire say it, that Umps Raphun said Hamilton need not expect much from an umpire until they had stopped roasting the umps, says the Hamilton News. Well, it is a long road that has no turning, and one of these days Mr. Raphun is likely to find himself in the canal after a game if he don't do a little better. You could pick a kid out of the primary class and do better than he does.

And speaking about Raphun, did you notice that he felt so highly [illegible] at the roasts the newspapers handed him around the state in a recent game at Hamilton, that he wrote to the sporting editor of the [illegible] [illegible] and endeavored to explain why he walked off the field the other day. Raphun said he was sick and [illegible] the reason he walked off the field Friday. He looks to us though he ought to be in the hospital all of the time. He will get his in this old [illegible] some sweet day and the Bobby [illegible] will wake up, maybe.

Tigers Are Favorites

Detroit's chances for the pennant appear brighter now than they have at any time since the season opened, for the reason that two of the Tigers' veteran pitchers, Donovan and Mullin, have in their recent appearances on the rubber shown high class form. Heretofore Jennings has been compelled to rely almost entirely on his young pitchers to win games, and there was great danger that these would not last. But with Donovan and Mullin back in form, Willetts and Summers are likely to pitch good ball, and Jennings seems better fortified than he has been at any time either last year or this.

All that the Detroit team [illegible] to win is a corps of pitchers who can hold the opposing team down to three or four runs, for the Tigers will score more runs than that.

Those four victories over the [illegible] has [illegible] a lot of confidence in the former champions, and [illegible] [illegible] they are sure to get a few [illegible] from this out.

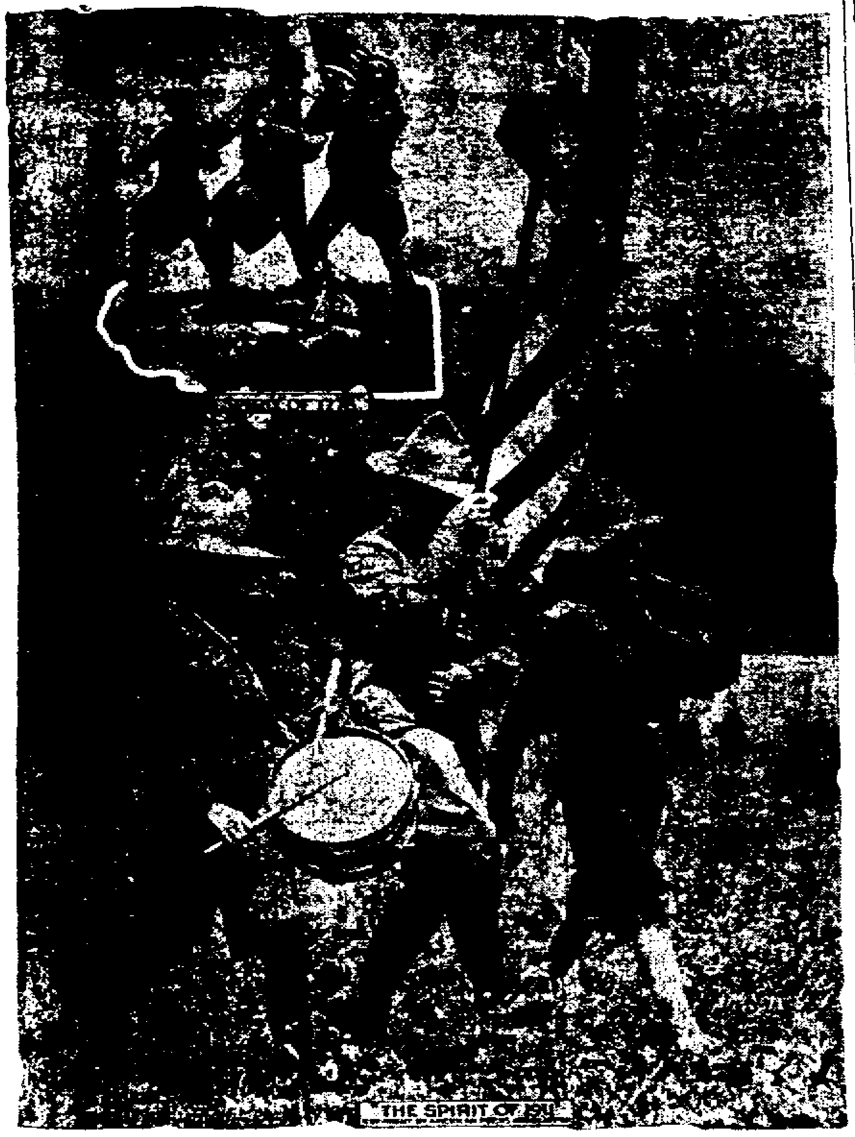
Boy Scouts In "Spirit Of 1911"



Cooperstown, N. Y., July 15— Three of the boys attending the national encampment of the Boy Scouts of America at Otsego lake, near this city, posed for a photograph made to suggest "The Spirit of 1776," the noted painting which shows three generations marching to the music of fife and drum to fight the British in the war of the American Revolution. The boys entered with enthusiasm into "The Spirit of 1911."

TWO CHAMPS NOW LANKS HAMMOND BECOMES BABE, AND WHALEN COMES HERE

Wes Hornung has been seen in a Portsmouth uniform for the last time, according to word received from Manager Childs, Tuesday morning. Not only Hornung, but also Outfielders Tennant and Hammond.

Hornung and Tennant have signed Lancaster contracts and were to have played with that aggregation Tuesday afternoon. Hammond has been traded to Chillicothe for Red Whalen, third sacker, who set the league on fire with his hitting in the early springtime.

If you scan that paragraph pretty carefully, you will see there is lots of dope contained therein, and since it is impossible, it seems, to furnish you with any news concerning victories, the next best thing is to dish up something that at least has some authenticity about it.

Manager Childs called up President Gableman Tuesday morning, and stated that Hornung, Tennant and Hammond had demanded their releases. He stated that Lancaster would be glad to sign them. Pres. Gableman told him to do with them what he thought best, and it was later learned that Hornung and Tennant had signed agreements to play with Lancaster. Hammond stated that he would be perfectly willing to go to Chillicothe, and a deal was then pulled off by President Gableman with Manager Wrigley of the Babes, whereby Hammond becomes a Babe and Whalen is elevated to the degree of Champ.

Here is something else doing, but hope should be given in homeopathic doses—you'll get some more later on.

P. S.—A deal had already been fixed up whereby Hornung would have gone to Lima, but now that he has signed with Lancaster, of course it has fallen through.

SPIDERS ARE TO MEET THE MIDGETS

SMITH MAY BE A MANAGER

Mrs. Thomas Gavin, who has been staying with her husband at Decatur, Ill., where he manages the Decatur ball club, is home for a brief stay with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Braswine.

Mrs. Gavin gives out the information that the Three I league is about to quit business, as the attendance has fallen off so much that even the pennant winners are failing to draw sufficient crowds.

Mrs. Gavin states that the league is selling off the best players in order to make an attempt to make back enough to keep the managements on their feet. Mrs. Gavin further states that Dick will probably manage a team in the Western league as soon as the Three I league goes under. Irontonian.

Two Stars Quit The Doves

Boston, July 18—Charles Herzog and "Doc" Miller, shortstop and right fielder respectively of the Boston National Baseball club, have notified the club officials that they are through with baseball. Dissatisfaction with the team management is the reason given by the men.

Miller alleges that he has not received a promised increase in salary, and Herzog complains that he was fined $50 for indifferent playing at New York recently. He says that the fine was to be remitted if he played better ball, but notwithstanding he has since done his best, nothing has been said about the fine.

Miller says he is going out West to practice medicine, and Herzog says he will go back to Ridgely, Md., where he has a farm.

W. MILLER'S RECORD WITH SIOUX CITY

Walter Miller has won [illegible] games and lost 5 for the Sioux City team in the Western league. He beat Pueblo Sunday, 5 to 4.

"AllStars" Easy For Schultz

The Schultz sluggers easily defeated the All Stars at Coney Island, Sunday afternoon, taking the game 9 to 3. The sluggers pounded the ball all over the lot and with ease.

Glenn Davis umpired the game and gave splendid satisfaction. Schultz, by the way, is ready to meet any team in Portsmouth at Coney Island. Any manager desiring to arrange for a game will be accommodated if he writes to J. M. Cooper, South Portsmouth, or Elsie Kirns, Fullerton.

BIGGS HOUSE SCENE OF DARING ROBBERY

There was big doings down at the Biggs House Monday evening, following a discovery that a sneak thief had entered the apartments of Dave Tipton, the landlord, and had stolen a roll of bills, amounting to nearly $125.

The money was taken from a trunk, in which also was $550 in gold, but the thief overlooked the yellow money, it being buried further down and under the top tray.

The money disappeared sometime between three and six o'clock in the afternoon, the theft being discovered at the latter hour, when Mrs. Tipton went to the trunk to make change.

It is presumed that the thief got the money during the supper hour, taking advantage of the absence of the family from the apartments.

The police were promptly notified, and a half dozen officers, headed by Capt. Albrecht, hurried down to investigate.

A vigorous search was instituted by the officers in an effort to recover the money, but in vain, they being unable to obtain the slightest clue as to the guilty party. The officers thoroughly searched the rooms at the hotel, went through the effects of boarders, and even searched the clothes of a number of guests.

This is one of a series of thefts which have occurred at the hotel in the last few weeks and no doubt is the work of the same party.

Only Saturday the rooms of two boarders were entered and $7.80 taken from one and a small amount from the other.

The excitement attending the searching of the building by the police was further augmented by a lively set-to between Proprietor Tipton and a boarder, Ed. McKinley. McKinley's disregarding the orders of the clerk to remain away from the toilet room until the search was finished, is said to have brought about the clash.

Tipton being appealed to, landed heavily on McKinley's jaw, who then retaliated with a fusilade of blows which completely bewildered the landlord and sent him sprawling on the floor. The encounter took place in the lobby and soon the place was packed by people, attracted by the disturbance.

McKinley was placed under arrest and brought to the station, but later gained his release on bond.

Tuesday morning in police court McKinley was dismissed by Mayor Pfau, Tipton failing to appear to prosecute the charge.

Th police are still working on the robbery and hope to land the guilty party, though the prospect is not very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Tipton express themselves as being certain that the money was taken by a certain man, but are not in possession of sufficient evidence to warrant making an arrest.

Johnson Is Matched

London, Eng., July 18—Jack Johnson will fight Bombardier Wells. This was practically settled yesterday when announcement was made that the biggest purse ever hung up in London would be offered for the go. The figures and the name of the club that will stage the go have not as yet been given out. They will be made public as soon as Johnson and Wells have affixed their signatures to the articles. This, it is said, will be done in the immediate future, as both have agreed to all of the stipulations. The black worlds champion plans to take on Wells soon after he meets Petty Officer Curran, whom he has already agreed to fight.

ALEXANDER WANTS TO BREAK RECORDS

Grover Alexander, of the Phillies is after a new strikeout record. He has fanned 136 batters this season. Walter Johnson set a new record last year. He fanned 313. Alexander has averaged seven strikeouts to a game. Johnson averaged seven last year.

Red Dooin, Philly manager and catcher, says Alexander, National league pitching sensation, throws a fast ball that jumps a foot and sometimes from [illegible].

Alexander relies on his fast ball, a slow drop curve, and control. He has no fancy curves and says he will never try any mysterious shoots.

The Philly star pitcher wants to beat the record of 31 victories made last season by Jack Coombs. Alexander has won 15 games. He has always pitched better ball in the last half of the season.

In The Race To Stay Says Jno. Williams

"Just say that I placed my petitions on the street today and that I am in the mayoralty race to stay," said John M. Williams, Tuesday.

The reply was made to a query that it was generally understood that owing to ill health Mr. Williams would not make the race in view of recent developments.

Mr. Williams is considerably improved and says he will work hard to be returned the Republican nominee. He has not been at his plant for the past seven weeks. He was overcome by heat eight weeks ago, and was for several weeks a very sick man.

POPULATION CENTER

Washington, July 18—Indiana is still the hub of the United States, although the westward progress of the star of the empire has slightly shifted the center of gravity since the last census.

The center of population, according to the announcement of the Census Bureau is located at a point approximately four and one quarter miles south of Unionville, Monroe county, Indiana. Its location at the time of the last census was six miles southeast of Columbus, Bartholomew county. The movement in the past decade has been about 31 miles and seven tenths of a mile north.

The geographical center of the United States is in Northern Kansas, so that the center of population, therefore, is about 550 miles east of the geographical center of the country.

TRIED TO BLOW UP EVANGELIST

Peebles, O., July 18.—John Tuttle, evangelist, has for some time been conducting a series of meetings throughout Adams county, and he pitched his tent in Peebles last Thursday. Crowds gathered to hear him, but did not like the remarks he made about secret orders. Threats were made to remove him from the tent, but no one made any attempt to do this, and last night a stick of dynamite was placed near the tent and exploded.

No one was hurt, nor did the minister quit. He said he would preach regardless of man, devil or hell.

ONE DAY ONLY

Saturday, July 22nd, 1911

Hours 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.
Consultation Free.

The Methods used by us are the latest and only such as have been approved by the leading Specialists of the World.

When you place your case in our hands you do so with the assurance that no matter how long you have been treated without success you will receive what you desire. A cure of your trouble, if your case is curable.

Many have spent hundreds of dollars without receiving a cure—have thrown away their money and received nothing in return, but after treating with us a short time their improvement has been so marked and they have been returned to "perfect health" so quickly that they have expressed the greatest regret over the fact that they did not obtain our services at the start.

Has this been your case? Have you spent your money in a fruitless effort to be cured without obtaining any benefit? Have you taken treatment so long that you have despaired of ever obtaining a cure of your trouble? If so, we say to you Call and See us and we will quickly convince you that we can and will make good every promise we make.

Don't hesitate to come to us because you feel you will be unable to pay. We are more interested in seeing that you are completely relieved of your trouble than in what you pay or how you pay us. You will find that our fee will be no more than you can conveniently pay and we are willing for you to pay it in any way that will suit your circumstances.

Our specialty is treatment of the Head, Lungs, Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels or Sexual Troubles and women and men with nervous prostration, who are discouraged and despondent cured, no matter how many doctors have given you up; Nervousness, Lost Vitality, no matter what the cause, Varicose Enlargement, Blood Poison, Piles, Fistula and all lingering Chronic Diseases—the success we have and the large number of patients we are dismissing happy in the thought that at last they have gotten rid of their troubles, insures you a cure where others have failed to even benefit you.

We will cure you quicker than other specialists for the reason that with our immense practice we are able to do the right thing at the right moment in the right way in order to bring about the quickest scientific results.

We say to those who have taken other treatment without benefit and to those who have neglected themselves until their condition has become chronic, begin treatment with us at once, and you will receive decided benefits and a cure of your trouble.

To those who are feeling the first symptoms of their trouble—Not sick but worn out—lack energy and have a feeling that they do not have the ambition they used to have we say it is your duty to yourself to consult us at once and find out just what is the matter. We will make a thorough examination of your case and tell you just what is necessary for you to do.

Don't waste time and money in experimenting—you can't afford to treat with anyone but the best for if you do you will pay out more money in the end without receiving anything in return than it would have cost you to get the best treatment in the beginning. Nor can you afford to neglect yourself—to let your trouble run along without attention—for just as sure as you do you will find that your trouble will become chronic and will require much more time to get rid of it. "Take time by the forelock" and be cured at once. You don't want to burden your whole life by neglecting yourself now. Call and find out just where and how you stand.

Superior Treatment will cure you, Inferior won't. Which do you want?

CITY CANNOT GIVE LAND FOR ARMORY

The street committee of council, composed of Members Cook, Ger[illegible] and Moeller, held a hearing at the city building Monday night for the purpose of discussing the proposed plan of the city donating a site for an armory.

[illegible] Jordan and E. E. Knox appeared as spokesmen for the board of trade, while the Grand Army, Sons of Veterans and other civic organizations were also represented.

City Solicitor J. S. Thomas rendered an opinion that the city cannot donate real estate to county or state, such proceedings having been declared illegal by the supreme court in a similar case which came from Cleveland.

The matter of the city giving a long lease was then discussed at length, after which the legality of that plan was referred to the City Solicitor for an opinion.

Postmaster Charles E. Hard and Assistant Dave Thomas appeared before the committee in regard to a proposed plan of renumbering the citly streets.

The plan of Messrs. Hard and Thomas is to number the streets from the Ohio river east. They had a map showing their system, which some of the committee looked upon favorably, while others thought that Offnere street should be made the new dividing line, the same as Chillicothe street is at present.

The postmaster explained he was anxious to give East Portsmouth, and in fact, the entire new territory annexed, carrier service, but he is unable to do so on account of the absence of street improvements, such as sidewalks and street crossings and house numbers.

No definite action was taken on the project.

The matter of moving Dr. Tremper's house on Eighteenth street to make way for the opening of that thoroughfare from Chillicothe to Waller street, was discussed, the committee finally deciding to accept Dr. Tremper's proposition that the city pay him $1200, and he will do his own moving.

The only contention now is the dirt off the street, which Dr. Tremper is holding out for. He will confer with the city engineer soon with the hope of adjusting that part of the deal.

Reach Denver In Safety

Word has been received from J. L. Hannah, of Fullerton, Ky., that he and his daughter, Miss Clara, have reached Denver, Colo., safely, and that the latter is now comfortably located in a tuberculosis sanatorium in that city and is doing nicely. The rarified air seems to agree with her and the physicians in charge of the institution declare they can restore her to health. Mr. Hannah will return home the first of October, although his daughter will remain in Denver for at least a year.

Brick Drops On His Head

He was working on one of the new furnaces when a brick hit him on top of the head, cutting a gash three inches long and rendering the man unconscious for more than thirty minutes. Dr. Harry Schirrmann, the company's physician, dressed the man's injuries.

Vishipki declares that he was injured purposely. He has been complaining for some time that one of the helpers at the plant has been dropping bricks on his toes through spite. He declares that just as soon as he recovers sufficiently that the helper will think that a ton of lead has suddenly been dropped upon his head.

Edw. Gray In Town

Edward Gray, former proprietor of Gray's restaurant on East Tenth street, who purchased a farm near Jamestown, N. Y., some time ago, is in the city, and will likely dispose of his restaurant home. The restaurant has been under the management of William Miller for some time and he will likey again enter the employ of the N. & W. as express messenger.

Mr. Gray states that he likes his home in New York state and adds that he is prospering. He has just let a contract for the erection of a fine home, which will be erected with concrete blocks. He states that he gets the Daily Times regularly, and that he was glad he lived in New York, where the breeze from the lake kept the mercury away down, especially when he read of how warm it was here several days ago.

To Open Shop In This City

John Heston, former barber of this city, who has been living in Cincinnati for the past two years, arrived here Tuesday and is casting about for a location. He states he will open a first class shop within the next few weeks.

Hopkins Back From Vacation

N. & W. Passenger Conductor Walter Hopkins, in charge of Cincinnati trains Nos. 25 and 26, is back on his run after an absence of four weeks, during which time he took his family on a trip to the Pacific coast, visiting every city of note in that part of the country. They also visited in British Columbia, coming direct from there to Portsmouth, once more glad to feel the effects of the sun's rays. During Conductor Hopkins' absence, his place has been filled by Fred Winekauf.

KIDS WERE DRENCHED

Several colored kids received what some people would call a baptizing at the fountain in front of the Eleventh street school building Monday evening. The kids had takes off the mouthpiece on the fountain and the water shot fully twenty feet high in the air, literally drenching the mischievous [illegible]. They certainly did scatter and in all directions, too.

Mars, American aviator, known around the world as "Bud" Mars, who was badly hurt in a fall while making a flight here, recently completed a globe girdling tour, during which he gave aeroplane exhibitions in many oriental countries. Mars formerly was a daredevil high diver, trapeze performer and aeronaut.

HAM MANAGER CANNED ON TUESDAY

Hamilton, O., July 18.—(Spl.)—Manager Jimmy Barton, of the Hams, was handed his unconditional release this afternoon by the new club owners and the managerial reins placed in the hands of Frank Locke, who was given orders to at once shake up the team from top to bottom and spare no expense in building up a winner.

The club owners have been thoroughly disgusted for some time with Manager Barton's umpire baiting tactics, and decided to get rid of him before the patronage of the park fell off to nothing.

Barton was secured from the New Castle team of the Ohio and Pennsylvania League, and his efforts to give Hamilton winning ball resulted in a dismal failure.

SQUIRE FACED A LOADED GUN

'Squire Brickey, of Fullerton, says it's no fun to look down the mouth of a loaded revolver, and his experience Sunday will not soon be forgotten.

The 'Squire was called early Sunday morning by Will Patton, who asked him to issue a warrant for the arrest of his son-in-law, William Gerbeart, who, he said, had threatened to kill his (Patton's) daughter. Mrs. Gearheart was afraid to go to the office of 'Squire Brickey with her father to make out the affidavit and the 'Squire went to her home.

He had no sooner returned to his office and was preparing to issue the warrant than Gearheart appeared. He had two loaded revolvers which he leveled at the 'Squire and threatened him if he issued a warrant. The father-in-law, Will Patton, grabbed a shot gun, and for a few minutes things looked very "ticklish" for the usually brave 'Squire who was not used to looking down the mouth of one revolver and standing in range of a shot gun.

Gearheart was finally ejected from the office and the sheriff sent for, but he refused to arrest Gearheart without a warrant, and in the meantime Gearheart left the vicinity.

TOLEDO GETS LANK TEAM

Columbus, Ohio, July 18—The Lancaster Club of the Ohio State League today passed under the control of William R. Armour, President of the Toledo Club, of the American Association. The deal was consummated through President Robert W. Read, who tonight announced that George W. Ruff, of Lancaster, had retired from the Ohio State League. The deal made yesterday by Ruff, whereby the Cain brothers, two of the most popular of the Lancaster team, went to Portsmouth, will not be disturbed. The sale was merely preliminary to Ruff's retirement, which was anticipated by the other clubs. Through this transfer the Lancaster Club becomes the third "farm" under control of American Association owners. The Lima Club is held by the Columbus and the Springfield by the Indianapolis Club. President Armour announced through President Read that he will at once strengthen the Lancaster team, having a number of promising young players at his disposal.

Real Poet Visits Town

E. A. Doyle, the bard of Adams county, is in Portsmouth, canvassing for an edition of his poems, which have been gathered together in a tasty volume of more than 200 pages. His most ambitious work is "Phocion," which good critics say is both a meritorious story and poem.

HER FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Glad She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cothran, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a sallow complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief.

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited.

I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women."

Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old.

Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength.

Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

OLDEST MAN IN OLD ADAMS

Ex-Mayor O. B. Brown, of Manchester, the oldest man in Adams county, celebrated his ninetieth birthday anniversary, Monday with a family reunion. Mr. Brown who is an uncle of ex-Congressman Lucien J. Fenton, is the father of 12 children, and his direct descendants, some of whom live in this vicinity, now number over a hundred. One or two of his children formerly lived in Portsmouth.

MONTGOMERY GOES WET

Montgomery, Ala., July 18.—reign of prohibition in Montgomery, which has been on since 1909 was officially killed at a local option election held Monday, when voters went on record by a majority of more than four to one in favor of a reversal o fthe wet column.

Results from the various wards showed that more than 2,500 of the voters were in sympathy with the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors, as opposed to about 600 against it.

Simultaneously there was a declaration for an overthrow of prohibition, the voters declaring their preference for the high license saloon as opposed to the dispensary by a similar majority.

Rusell county alsovoted to restore the saloons.

In Charge of Branch Store

NEW TERRITORY IS TO GET POLICEMEN

The finance committee of council met Monday night and agreed upon the semi-annual appropriation ordinance of the estimated current expenses of the municipality for the next six months.

One puzzling question which confronted the committee was the problem of caring for the new territory annexed, in the way of police, water and fire protection.

In the course of discussing the matter the fact developed that none of those living in the new part would pay any city taxes until December, 1912, and the city will not get its share until February, 1913.

Owing to the operation of the new one per cent. law passed by the recent general assembly makes it unlawful for the city to draw more taxes in 1912 than this year, so it can be seen that the council is up against a proposition.

The salaries of police and firemen are now paid out of the general appropriation of funds derived from taxation. They were formerly cared for by the saloon taxes.

The committee was forced to make material cuts in the estimates of the various departments compared with last year, the fire and police departments excepted, the limited funds making it absolutely necessary to retrench. The committee will endeavor to allow two, and possibly three additional patrolmen, where there really ought to be six, and to give the new territory as many of the conveniences enjoyed in other parts of the city in the way of lights, fire protection, etc., as possible, while the water situation will adjust itself, as the plan for new water works includes that entire section.

The ordinance will come up for passage at the regular meeting of council, Wednesday.

Educator Is A Visitor

Prof. L. P. Greves and wife, of Pittsburg, have come for an extended visit at the home of her brother, M. L. Bonner ,at Mt. Joy.

Prof. Greves is one of the leading educators of the Smoky City, having been principal of the 21st ward school there for almost half a century.

Former Resident Gets Fine Place

The many acquaintances of Andrew Biegel, former resident of this place, who for the past few years has been residing in Dayton, will be pleased to learn that he has been named as foreman of the big $300,000 Gas Appliance and Manufacturing Company now being erected at Baltimore, Md.

The plant, which will be one of the largest of its kind in the world, will manufacture gas stoves and ranges, and this is a business at which Mr. Biegel has no superiors.

Martin W. Longfellow, brother to Milton Longfellow, of this city, will also be connected with the new plant.

The old moulders of this city will recall both Mr. Biegel and Mr. Longfellow, for it was here they learned the rudiments of the stove building trade. Mr. Biegel, who is a brotther-in-law of L. W. Baker, worked for the Eberhardt Stove Company, and later for the Ohio Stove Company and Portsmouth Stove and Range Company.

For the past seventeen years he has been the manager of the Gem City Stove Company of Dayton, Ohio, where he has built up a national reputation as a stove builder. His many friends here will extend him congratulations upon the securing of his excellent position.
